

The Juice of the Grape,

A Favorite Song,

Sung by MR. T. BELLAMY at the AD LIBITUM Society, written by E. Bearcroft Jun^r. Esq^r.

the Music by

MR. S U E T T.

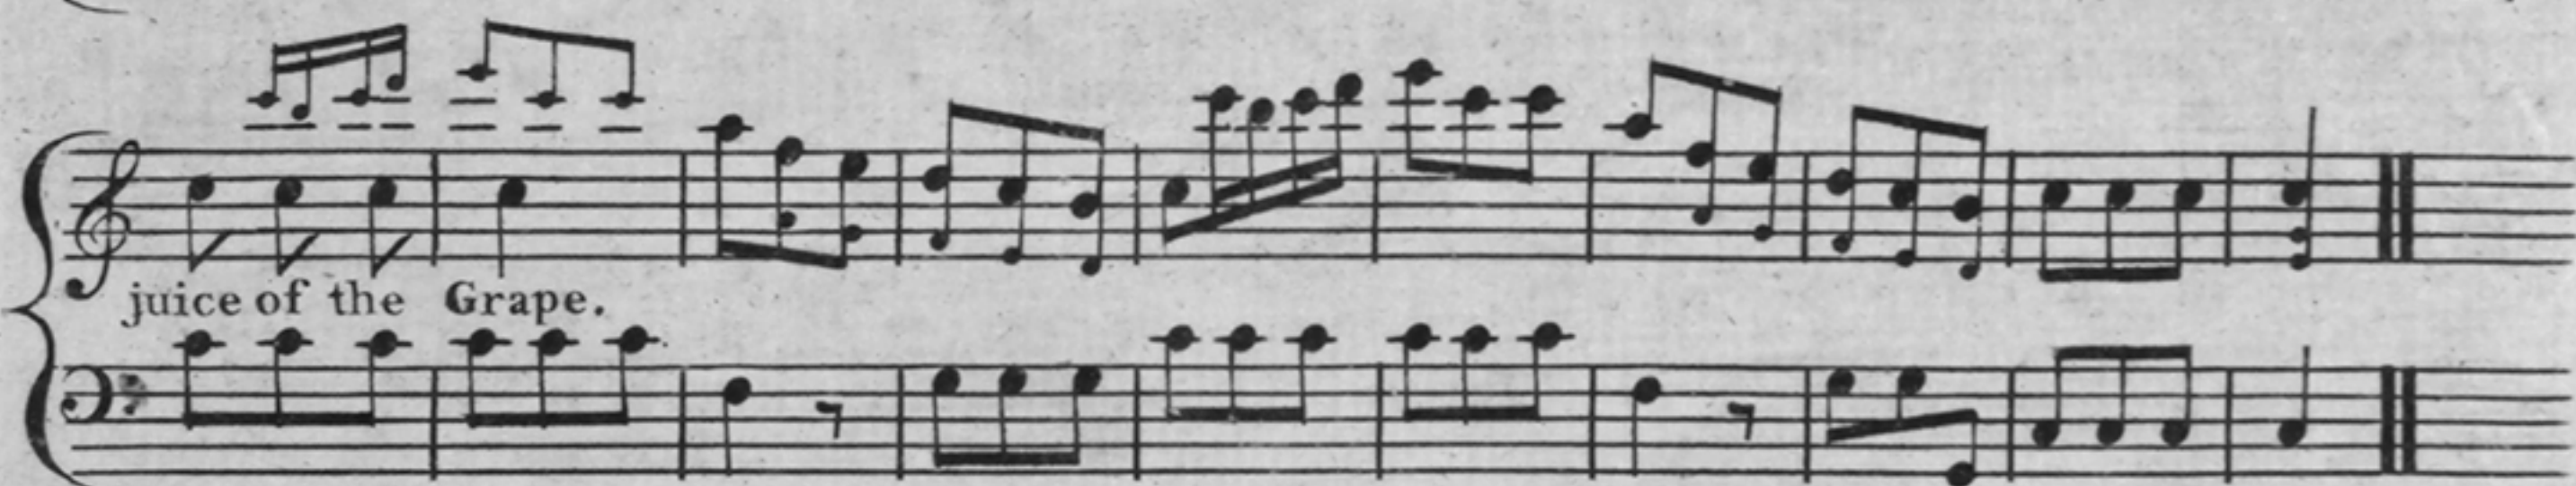

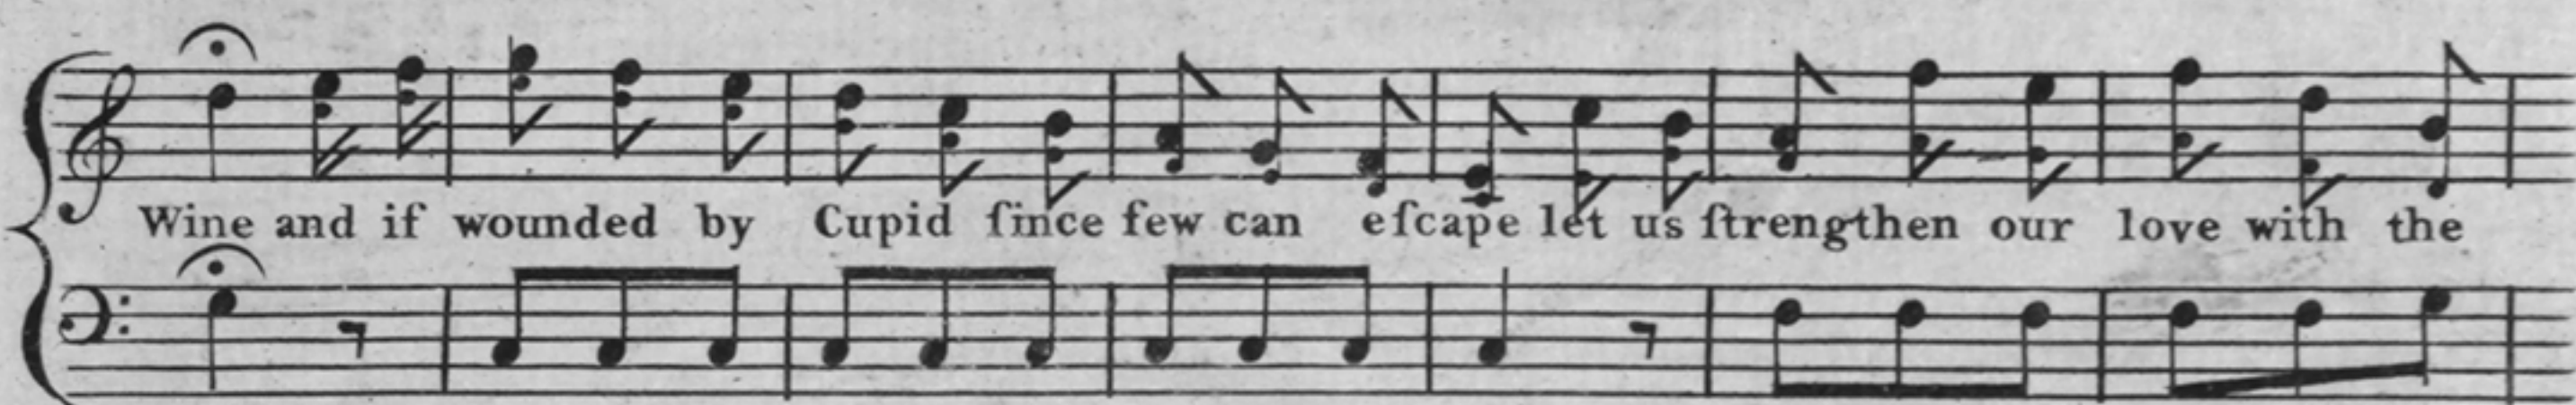

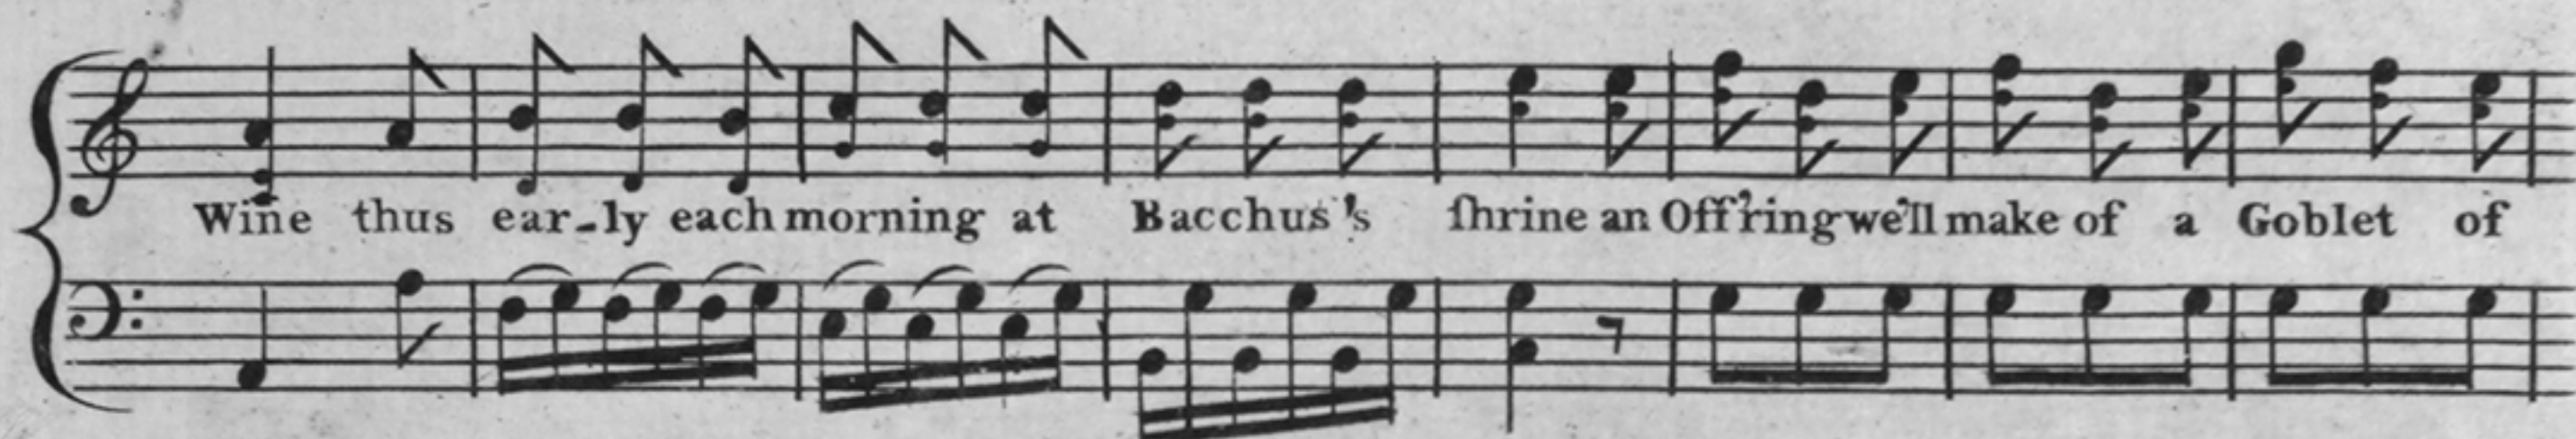

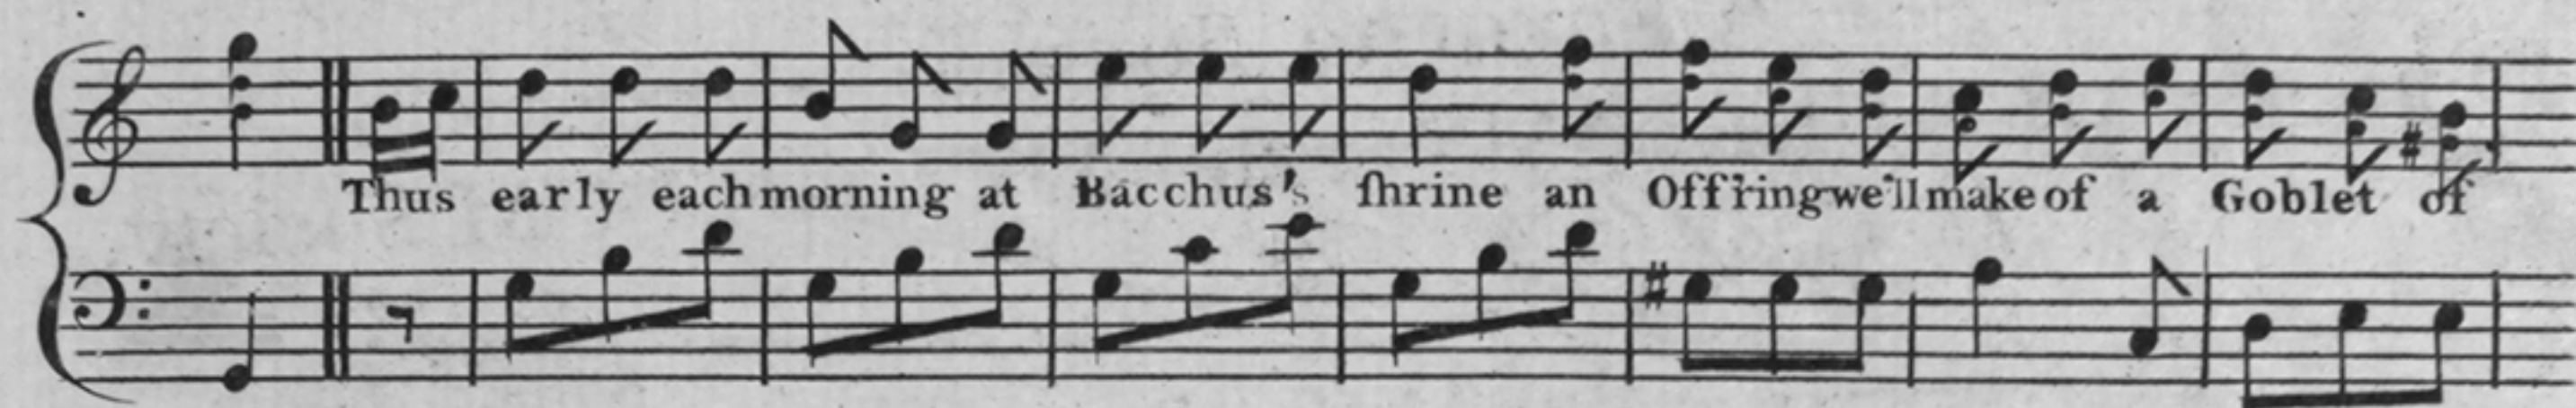

Pr. 6^d

London, Printed & Sold by Preston & Son, at their Wholesale Warehouses, 97 Strand.

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time. It consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the treble staff in the second, third, and fourth systems.

As soon as Au-ro-ra darts forth her first ray and disperses the mantle of Night the hours dance and sing round the Chariot of Day whilst Apollo on earth sheds new light

2
Though Hercules conquer'd by Omphales charms,
In disguise as a Woman was dress'd
And took up the distaff and threw down his arms,
Yet Wine fed the flame in his breast
Then early &c

3
Tho' Orpheus to Tartarus went for his Wife
Such a loss seldom causes much grief
Depriv'd as he thought of all comfort in life
Yet Wine gave him speedy relief
Then early &c

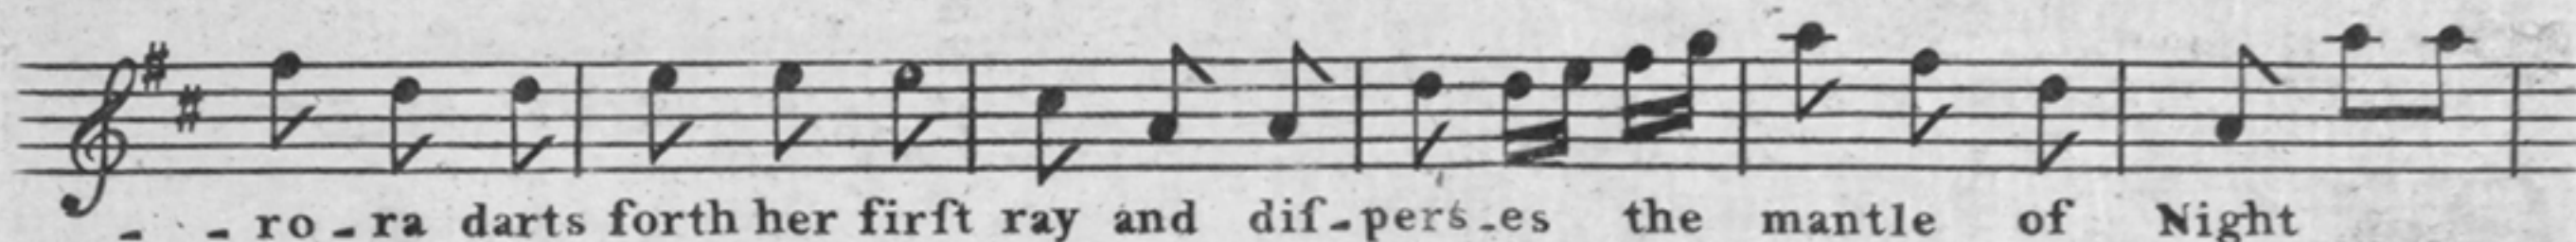

4
Tho' Daphne we learn was indeed a great Prude,
And laugh'd at Jove's yellow-hair'd Son,
This Damsel he never in vain had pursu'd,
Had he drank at his brother God's Tun.
Then early &c

5
Tho' Beauty at first may prove peevish and coy, Yet Wine only call to your aid,
You'll find she will equally pant for true joy,
And her haughtiness meerly parade.
Then early &c

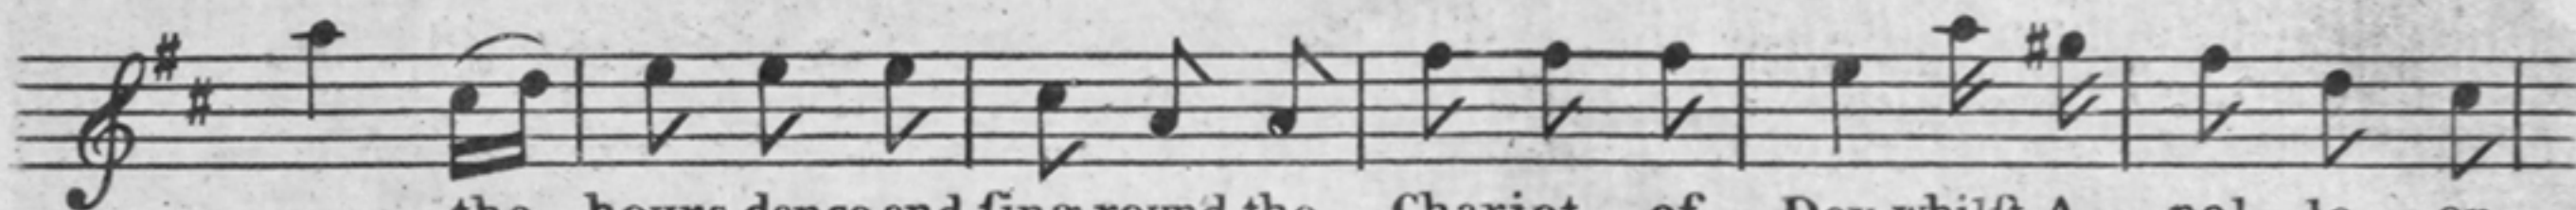

6
Then Bacchus's praise let us joyfully sing,
Who to Love Wit and Laughter gives birth,
Who makes even Time stay and moisten his wing,
Such pow'r has this God upon earth.
Then early &c

As soon as Au -

- ro - ra darts forth her first ray and dis - pers - es the mantle of Night

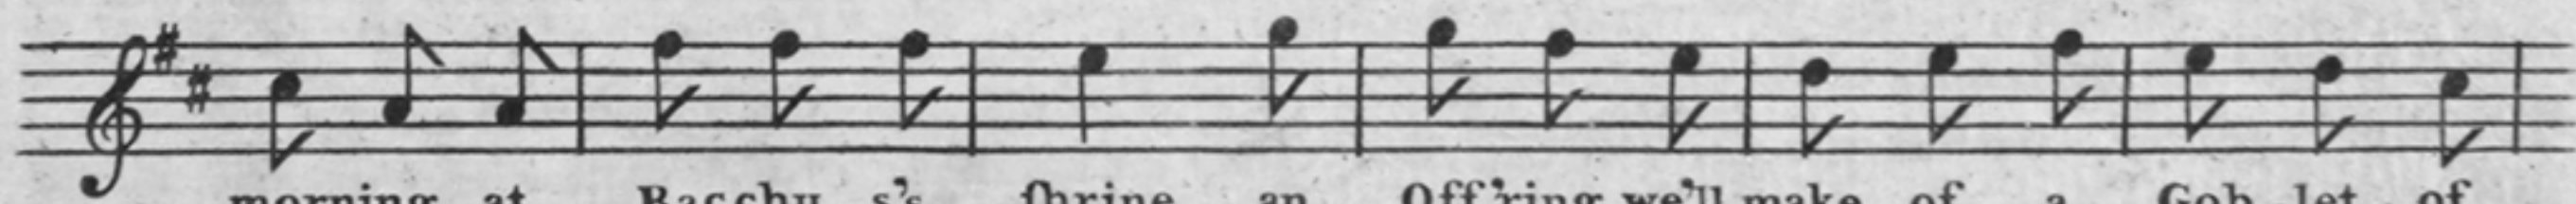

the hours dance and ring round the Chariot of Day whilst A - - pol - lo on earth sheds new light

Thus ear - ly each morning at Bacchu - s's shrine an Off'ring we'll make of a Gob - let of

Wine thus ear - ly each morning at Bacchus's shrine an Off'ring we'll make of a Goblet of Wine And if wounded by Cu - pid since few can e - - scape let us strengthen our love with the juice of the Grape.

As soon as Au -

ro - ra darts forth her first ray and dis-pers-es the mantle of Night

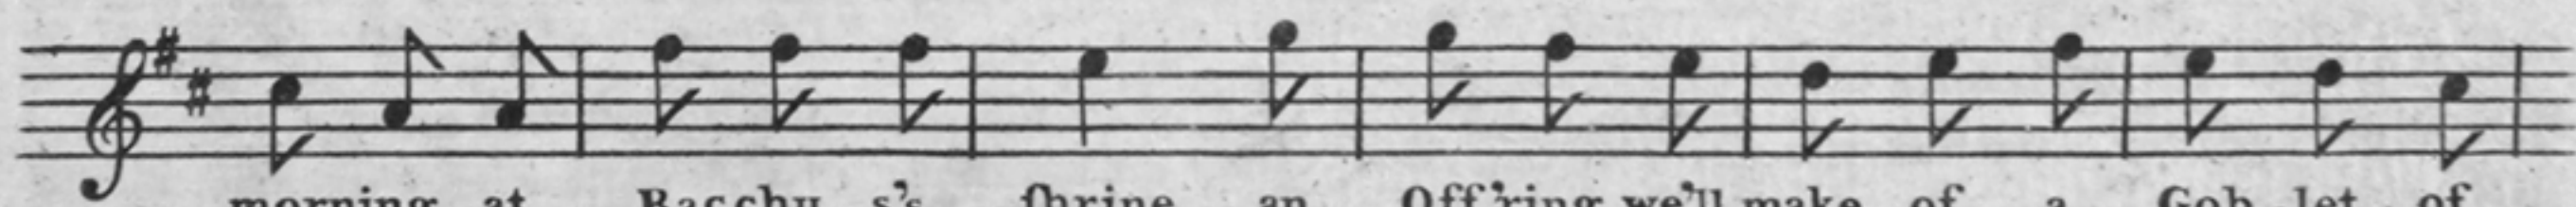

the hours dance and ring round the Chariot of Day whilst A - pol - lo on

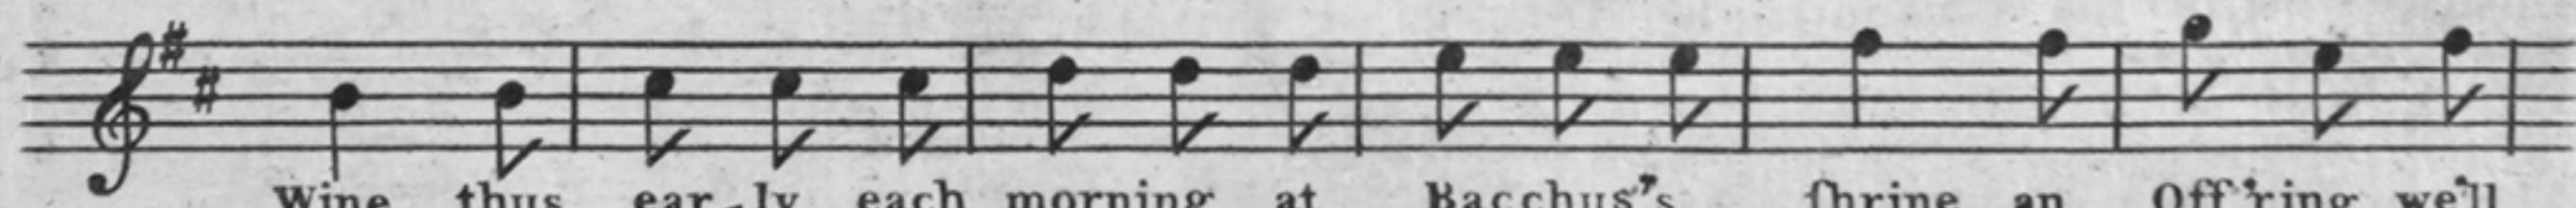

earth sheds new light

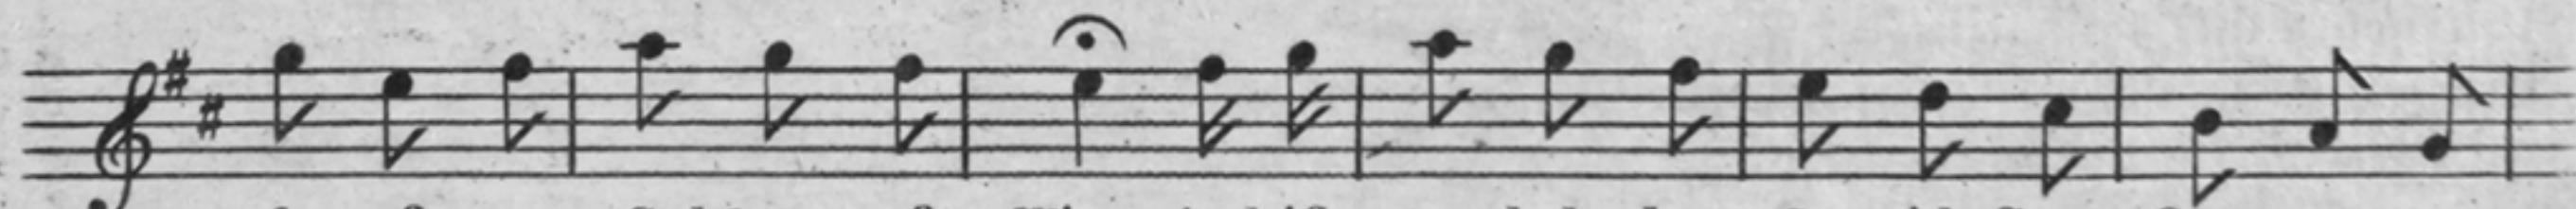

Thus ear - ly each

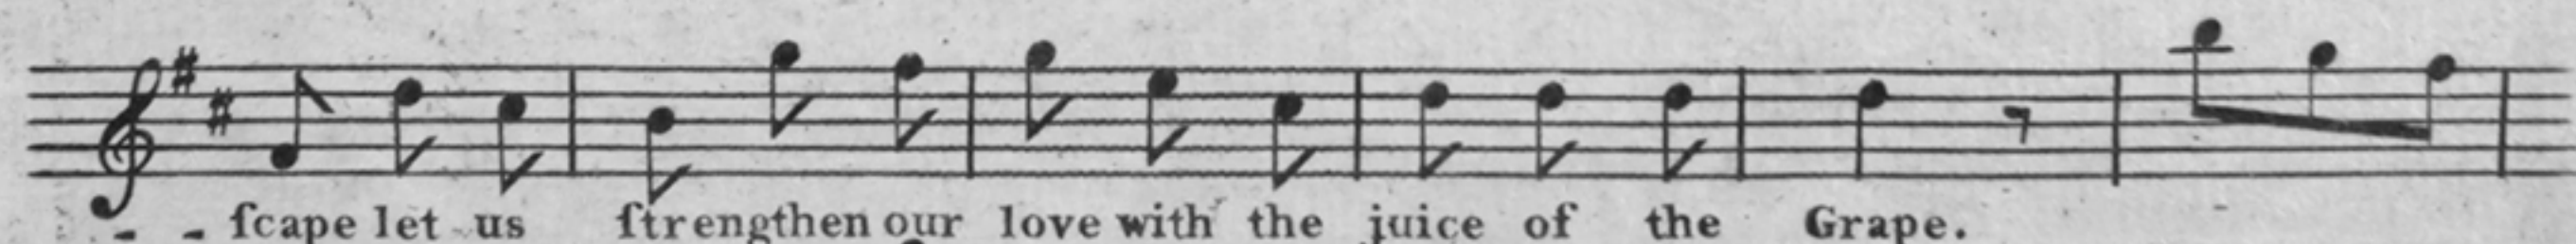

morning at Bacchu - s's shrine an Off'ring we'll make of a Gob - let of Wine thus ear - ly each morning at Bacchus's shrine an Off'ring we'll

make of a Goblet of Wine And if wounded by Cu - pid since few can e - scape let us strengthen our love with the juice of the Grape.

