INTRO.

Slow Fox-Trot

The piano introduction consists of two staves of music in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. The melody is primarily in the right hand, featuring a mix of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

VOICE

The first line of the song features a vocal melody on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The lyrics are: "Last night I at-tend-ed a par-ty, — All the The morn-ing that fol-lowed was pain-ful, — For that". The music is in a key signature of one sharp and 2/4 time.

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "boys I used to know were there. — Ev'-ry one was feel-ing hale and home brew stuff was made to last. — Felt just like the morn-ing af-ter".

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "hear-ty, But to drink a toast no one would e-ven bat-tle, When you want to put your head in-to a". The piano part includes a triplet of eighth notes in the left hand.
