

Endicott, Litho.

'ON THE BANKS OF THE DEE.'

A FAVORITE

SCOTCH BALLAD.

AS SUNG BY

MISS WATSON.

WRITTEN BY

ROBERT ALLAN,

COMPOSED & FOR THE ARRANGED

PIANO FORTE.

New York Published by ENDICOTT, Number 359 Broadway.

ON THE BANKS OF THE DEE,

—A—

FAVORITE SCOTCH BALLAD,

—as Sung by—

MISS WATSON,

—Written by—

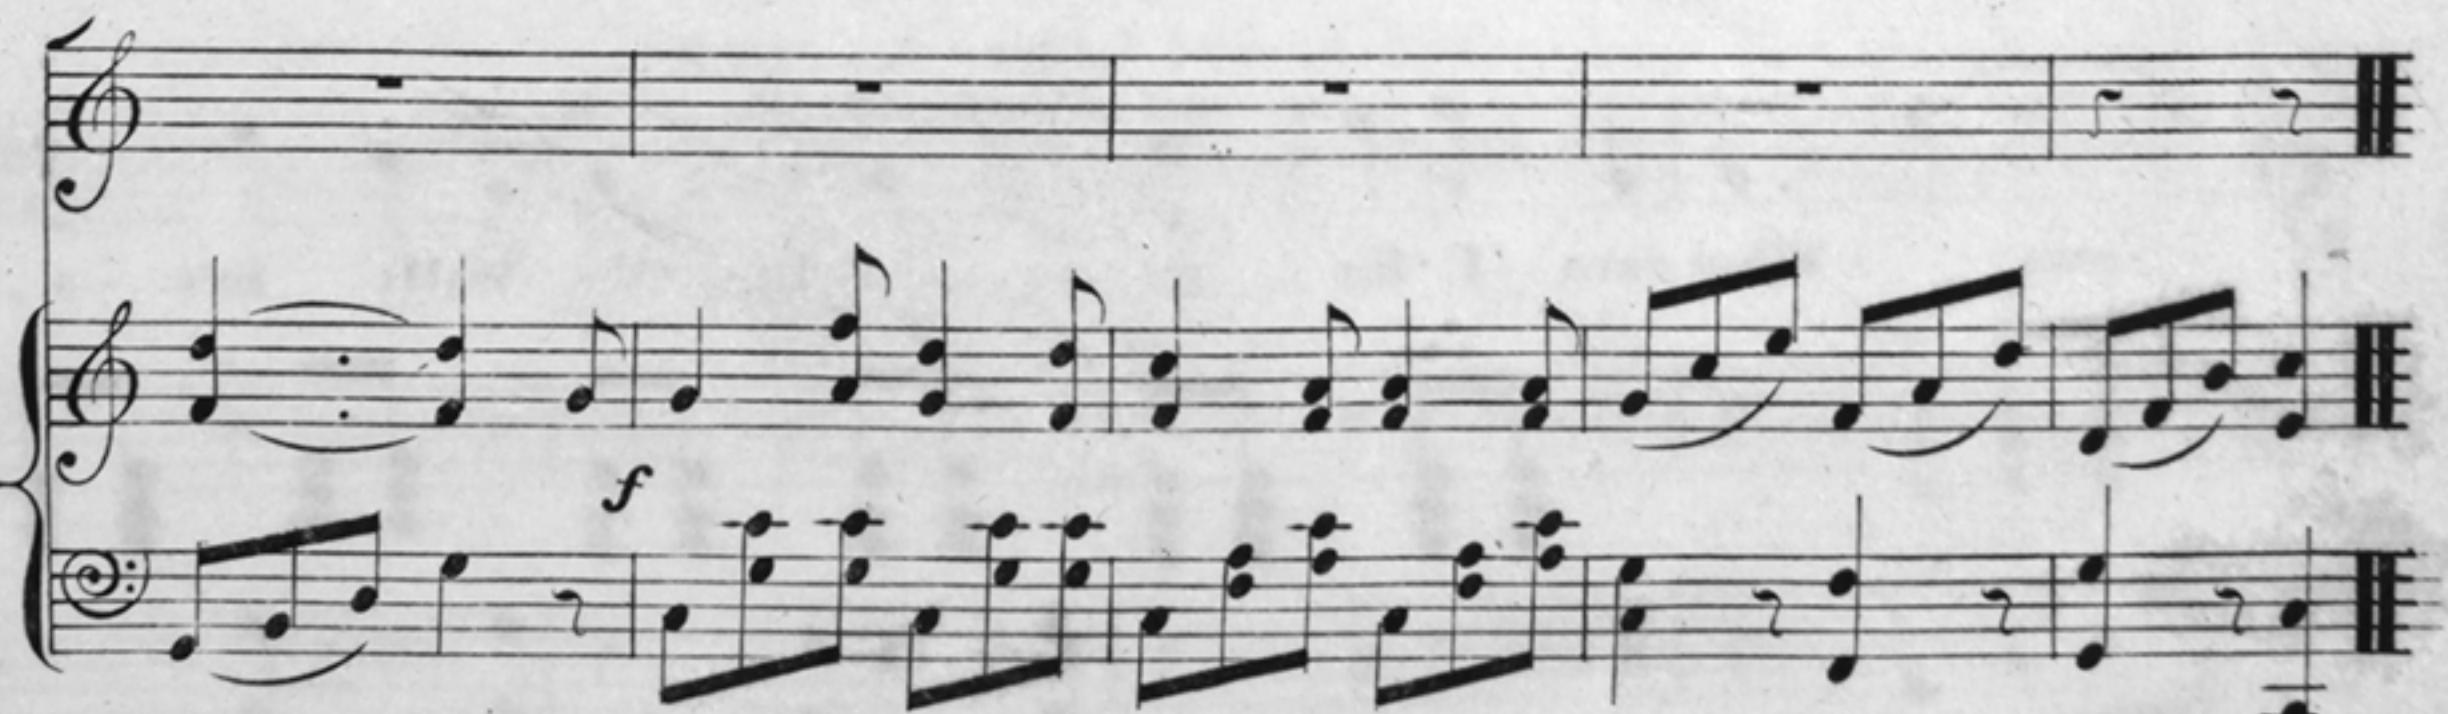

ROBERT ALLAN,

—Composed and Arranged—

for the

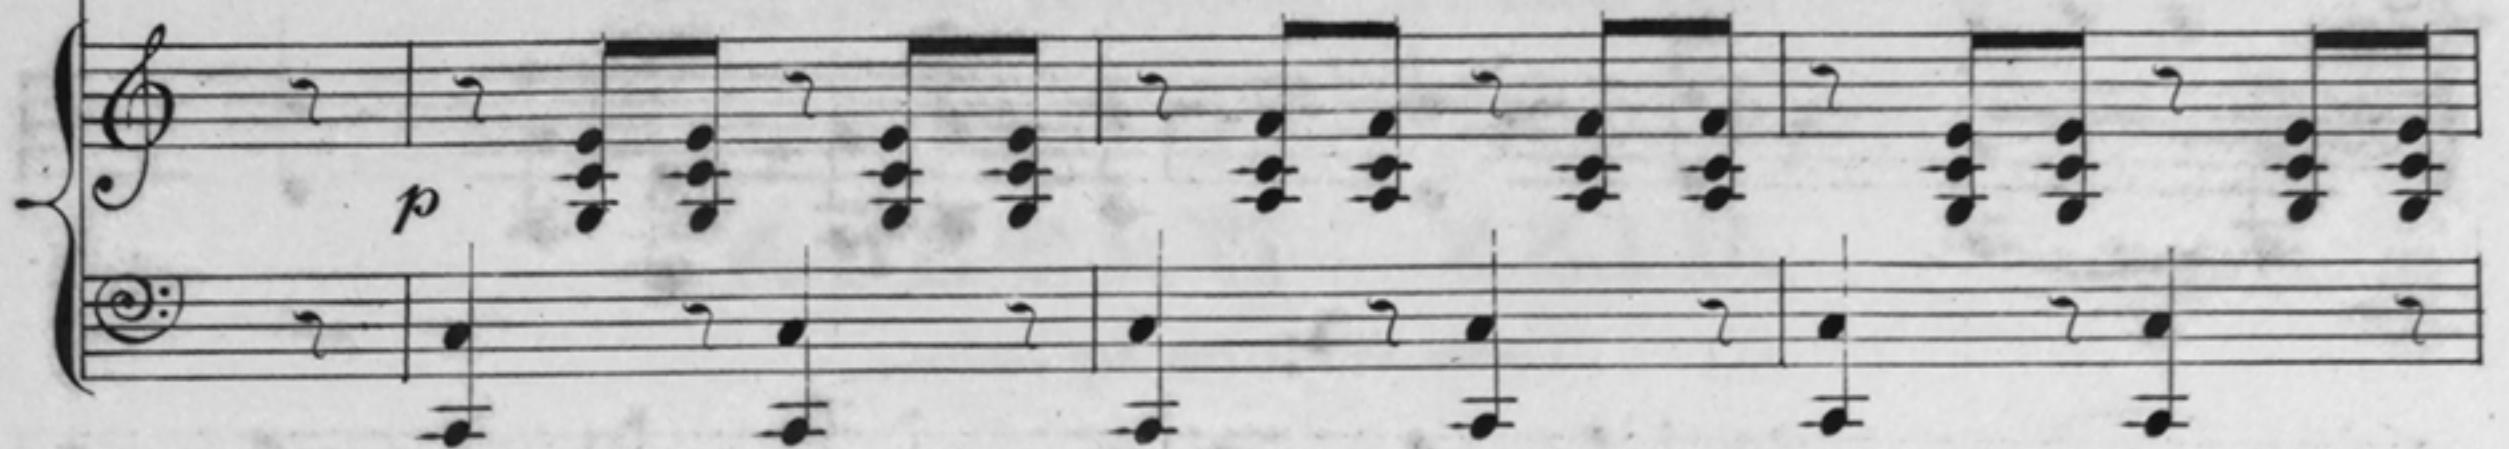

PIANO FORTE.

VOCE

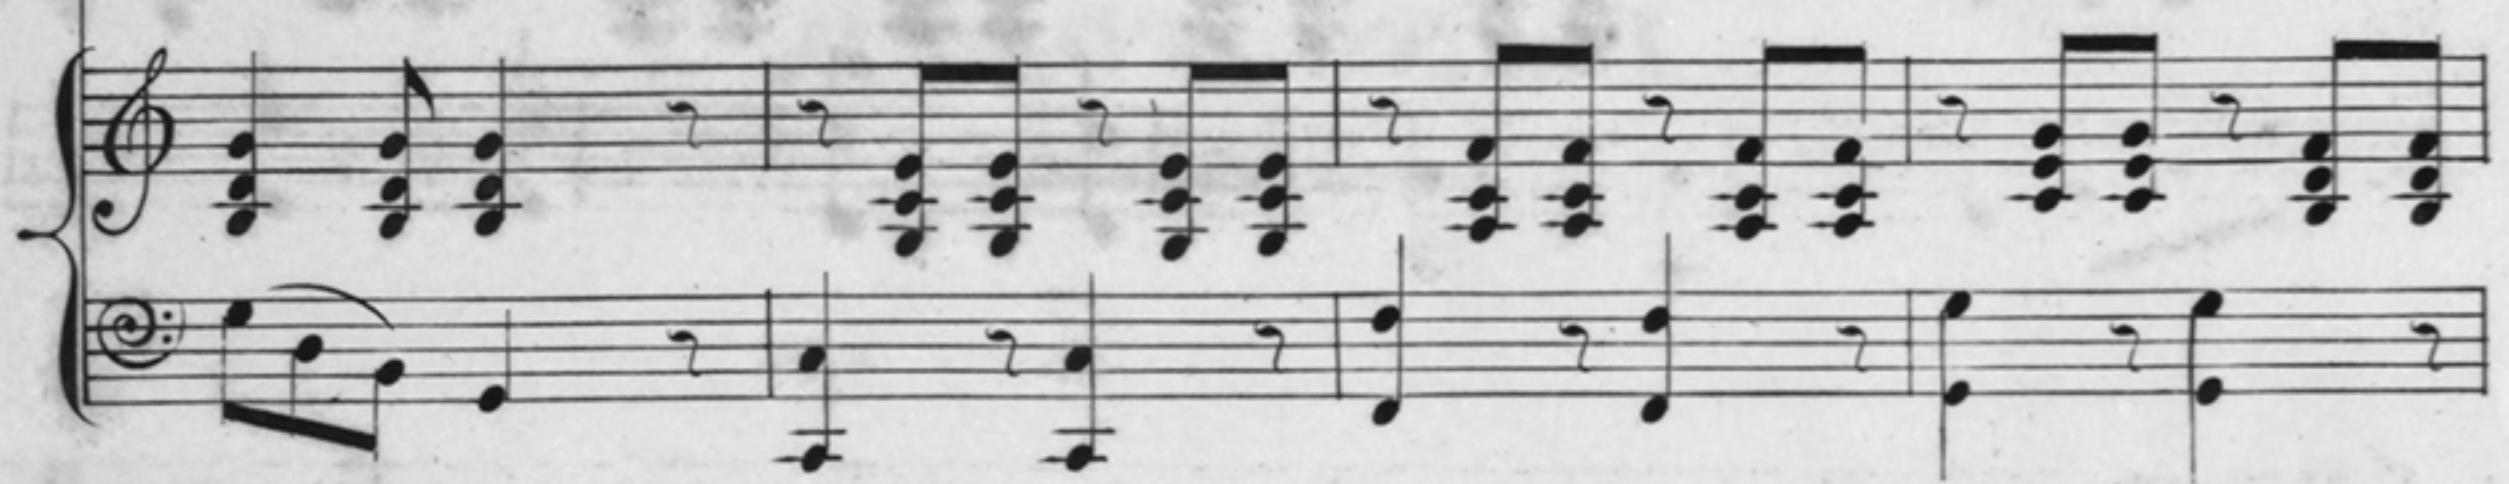

Entered according to the Act of Congress, in the year 1836, by George Endicott, in the Clerk's office of the District Court, of the Southern District of N.Y.

I met my Willy late yestreen, Up on the banks of Dee Tho' cauld the blast yet aye I ween, I'm blythe when he's near me; The moon peep'd thro' the ha . zle glen, And loud the cauld wind sang, What care I for its ee . . rie din, My Willy he's a -

Iang, How oft he vow'd there was nae lass, He lo'ed compar'd to me; Then Willy gied me sic a kiss, Up.on the banks of Dee.

3

I heard his sigh and loeing vow,
To mak' me ay his dear;
I tint my heart,I ken na how,
My Willy he was near:
The howling blast may tak' the lift,
An' eerie blaw on me,
I care na for the blackest night;
Wi' Willy on the Dee.
How oft he vow'd. &c.