Recit (ad lib) Spoken.

“Here’s the morn - ing pa - pers, on - ly four cents,” “Paper, sir?” Here is news from all parts of the world, By mail and by tel - e - graph wires; Here is Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1867, by C. M. TREMAINE, in the Clerk's office of the U. S. Dist. Court for the Eastern District of New York.

news of the mar - kets and stocks, Of fail - ures, and mur - ders, and fires..... The fash - ions and fol - lies of wo - men and men, And all that is wondrous and new;..... With our bundle just out from the prin - ter and press, We're cry - ing our pa - pers to you..... "Papers, sir?"

Spoken, last verse.

CHORUS.

AIR.

Here's the morn - ing pa - per, With the la - test news; Buy a pa - - per,

ALTO.

Here's the morn - ing pa - per, With the la - test news; Buy a pa - - per,

TENOR.

Here's the morn - ing pa - per, With the la - test news; Buy a pa - - per,

BASS.

Here's the morn - ing pa - per, With the la - test news; Buy a pa - - per, sir, I pray! I must get some cloth - ing, I must get some shoes;

sir, I pray! I must get some cloth - ing, I must get some shoes;

6

I must buy some bread to - day— Buy a pa - per, sir, I pray !

I must buy some bread to - day— Buy a pa - per, sir, I pray !

“Here’s the evening papers, only three cents”—
 Midst the rain, and the snow, and the cold,
 And early and late, we are found ;
 Through the streets, and the alleys, and lanes,
 We carry our papers around,
 You read in your parlors so cosey and warm,
 The news from the lands far away,
 But you scarcely have thought of the trouble and toil,
 To give you the papers each day. Сно.

3.

“Here’s the extra papers, only two cents”—
 We must pay for the paper and type,
 The writing of every line ;
 And the printer must live, you should know—
 A penny a paper is mine.
 Then treat us with kindness, by word and by deed,
 And lighten our burden with joy ;
 For the world would go backward if papers should fail
 So list to the newspaper boy. Сно.
