

THE PET OF THE CRADLE.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1865 by Wither & Shuster in the Clerks Office of the Eastern Dist. of Pennsylvania.

BY ALICE HAMTHORNE

PRICE 50 Cts.

PHILADELPHIA,

GUITAR

PIANO

Published by LEE & WALKER.

Respectful Dedicated

The Pet of the Cradle

To Miss S. Emily Davis

By ALICE HAWTHORNE

What is Home without a Mother.
 How sweet are the Roses.....
 The love of one fond Heart.....
 Rebecca at the Well.....
 My Cottage Home.....
 Listen to the Mocking Bird.....
 East thy Bread upon the Waters.....
 The Golden Moon.....
 Let us live with a Hope.

Come, gather round the Hearth.....
 I set my heart upon a Flower.....
 Chimes of the Monastery.....
 Mercys' Dream.....
 My early Fireside.....
 The Song of the Farmer.....
 Dreams that charm'd me when a Child.....
 The Days gone by.....
 Our good old friends.

R.M. Gaw.

PIANO. Moderato. p

Sua..... How sweet are the joys of a home that we prize; How dear is the bosom that welcomes us there; How 5719 4 31

bright are the smiles e-ver beaming from eyes That greet us with pleasure and trust to our care. The toil of a day, may be dearth to a heart; The care of a house-hold the toil of a life But there's joy in the prospect of meeting at-home, The "Pet of the Cradle", the smile of a wife.

SECOND & THIRD VERSES.

VOICE

PIANO.

Who loves not a child with its in - no - cent smile , And its
A home hath its charms be they ev - er so few, And the del - i - cate figure so young and so fair ; And who can - not clasp to ones fare of the poor is but humble in - deed , Yet hearts, with a care that is bosom a - while, The joy of a house hold, the cherish'd one there: We earnest and true, Look well to the wants of an in - fant in need. What - look at its fol-lies and smile to be-hold The joy that a foot-step can e-er be the sta-tion in sor-row or joy; What-ever be the fate that our bring to the eye, But none like a parent can dare to en-fold, The for-tunes may cast, Our hearts may be true to the cir-cle a-round, But the

"Pet of the Cra-dle," so fair and so shy.
 "Pet of the Cra-dle" fares best to the last.