

Charles A. Gardner's

Song

“SHUT YOUR EYES TIGHTLY AND OPEN
YOUR MOUTH.”

COMPOSED BY

GUSTAVE H. KLINE.

Published by MEYER & BROTHER.

108 E. WASHINGTON ST. CHICAGO, ILL

Entered according to the Act of Congress in the Year 1890 by Gardner & Kline in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington D.C.

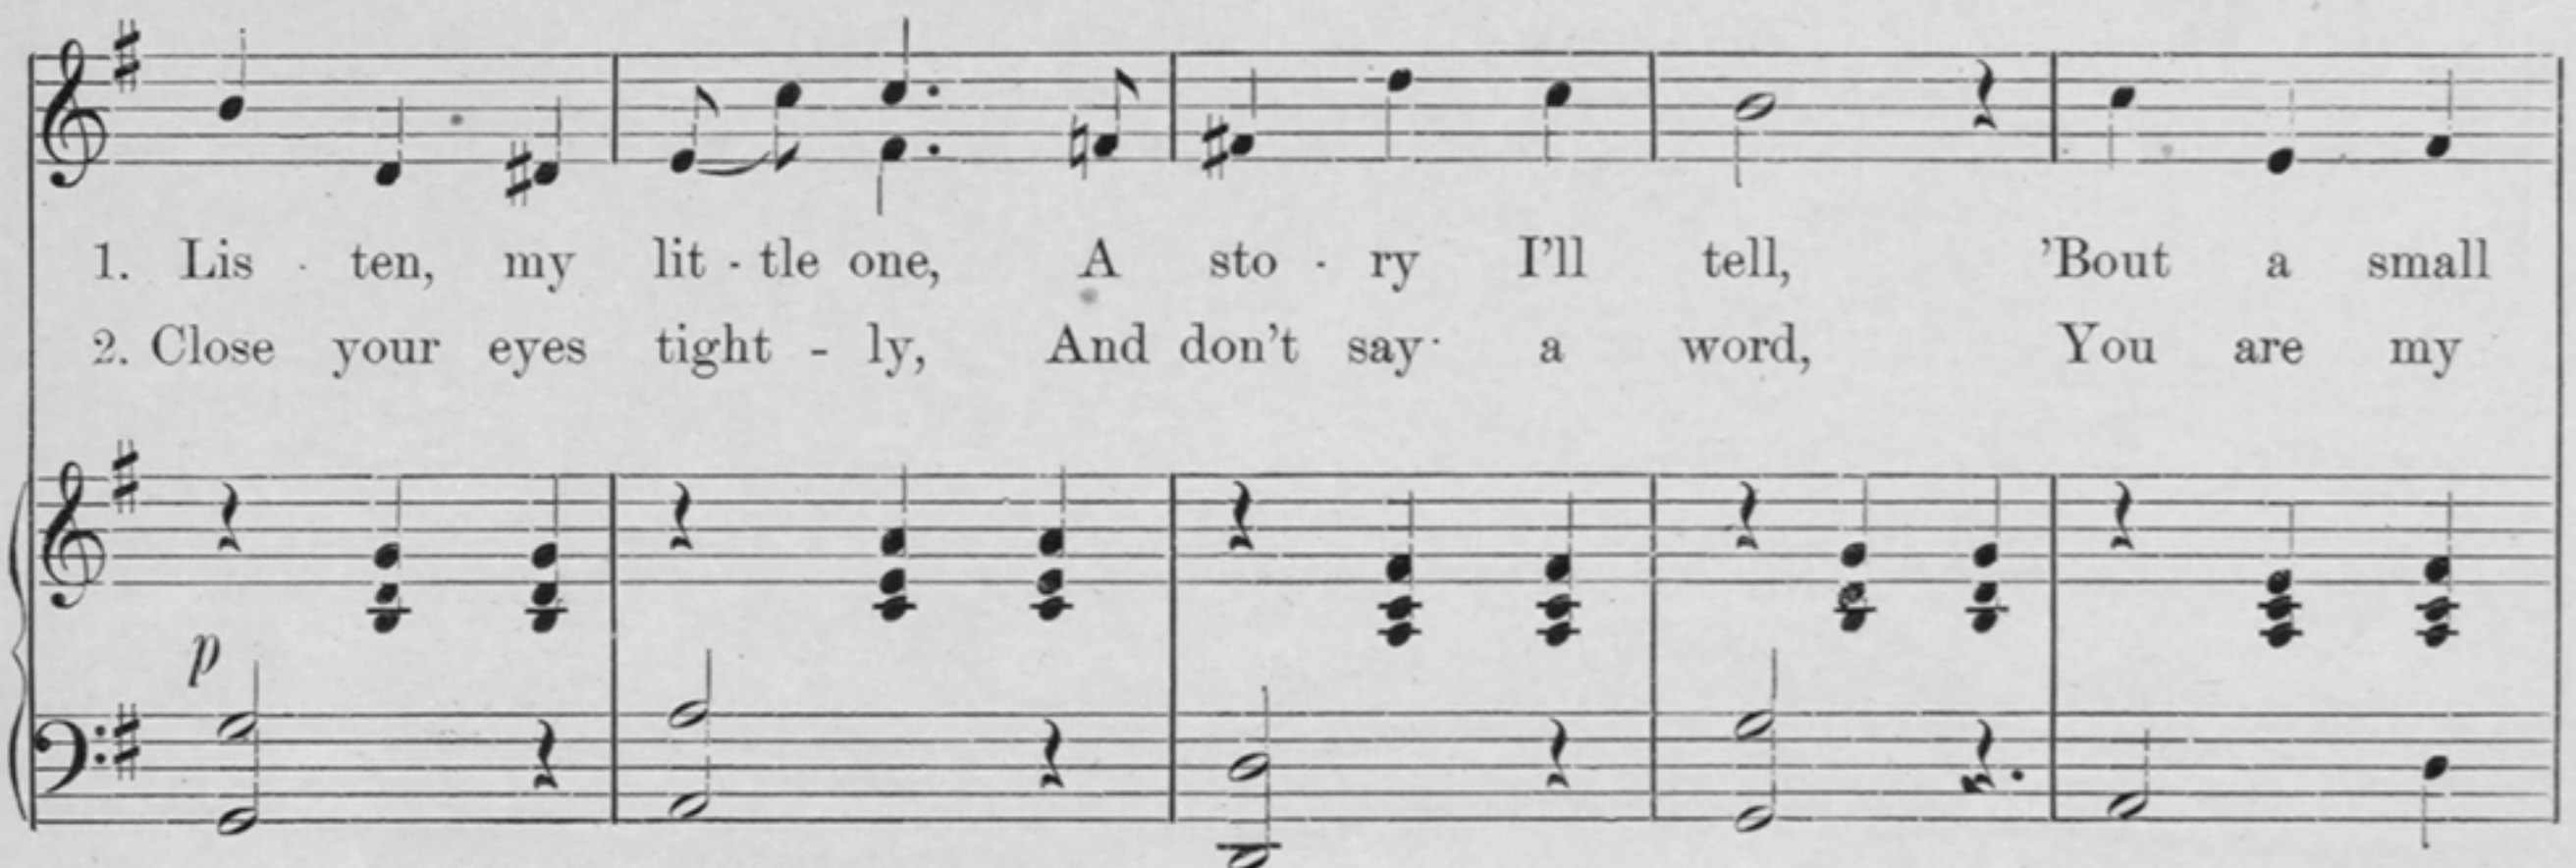

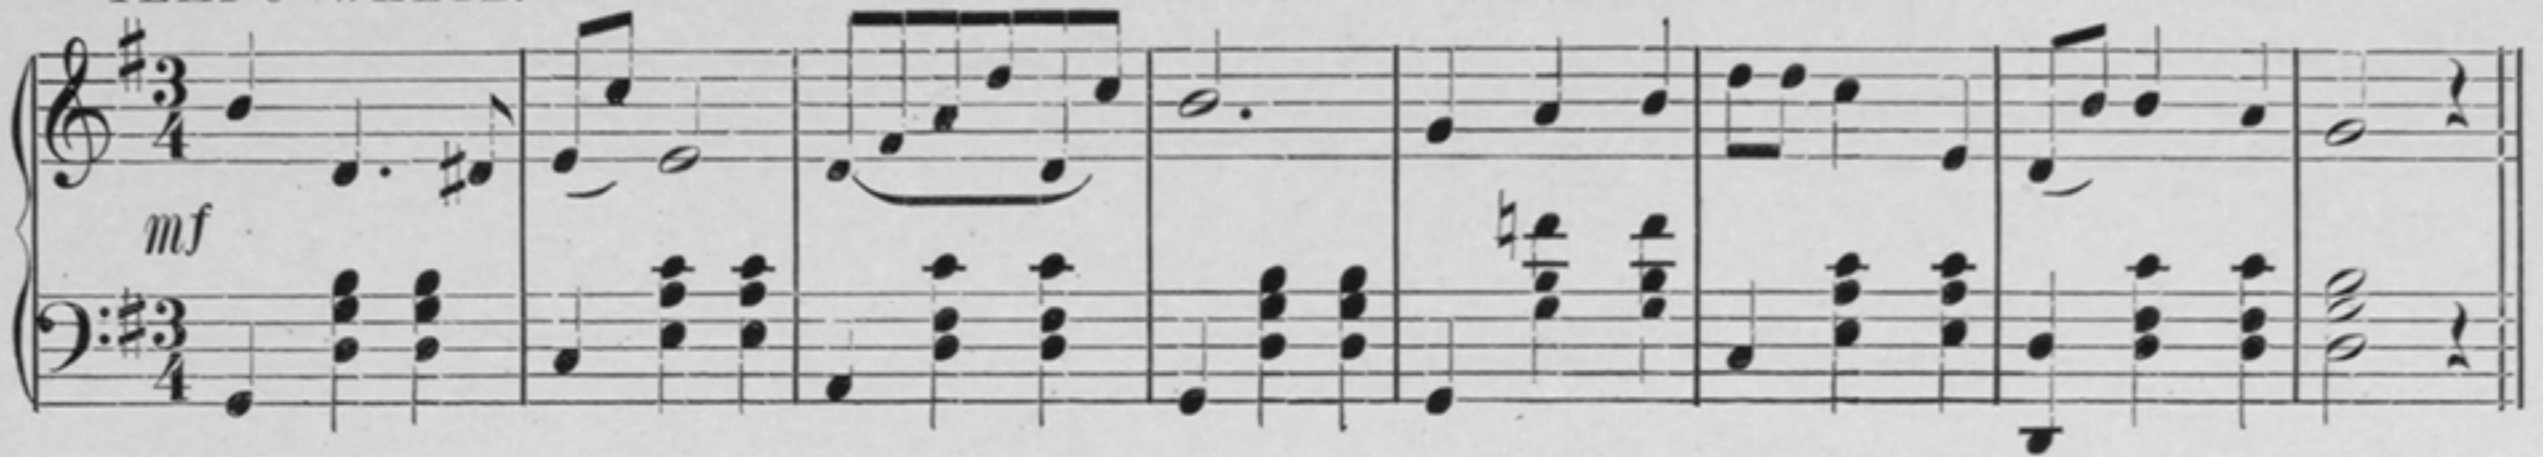

Shut Your Eyes Tightly,

— AND —

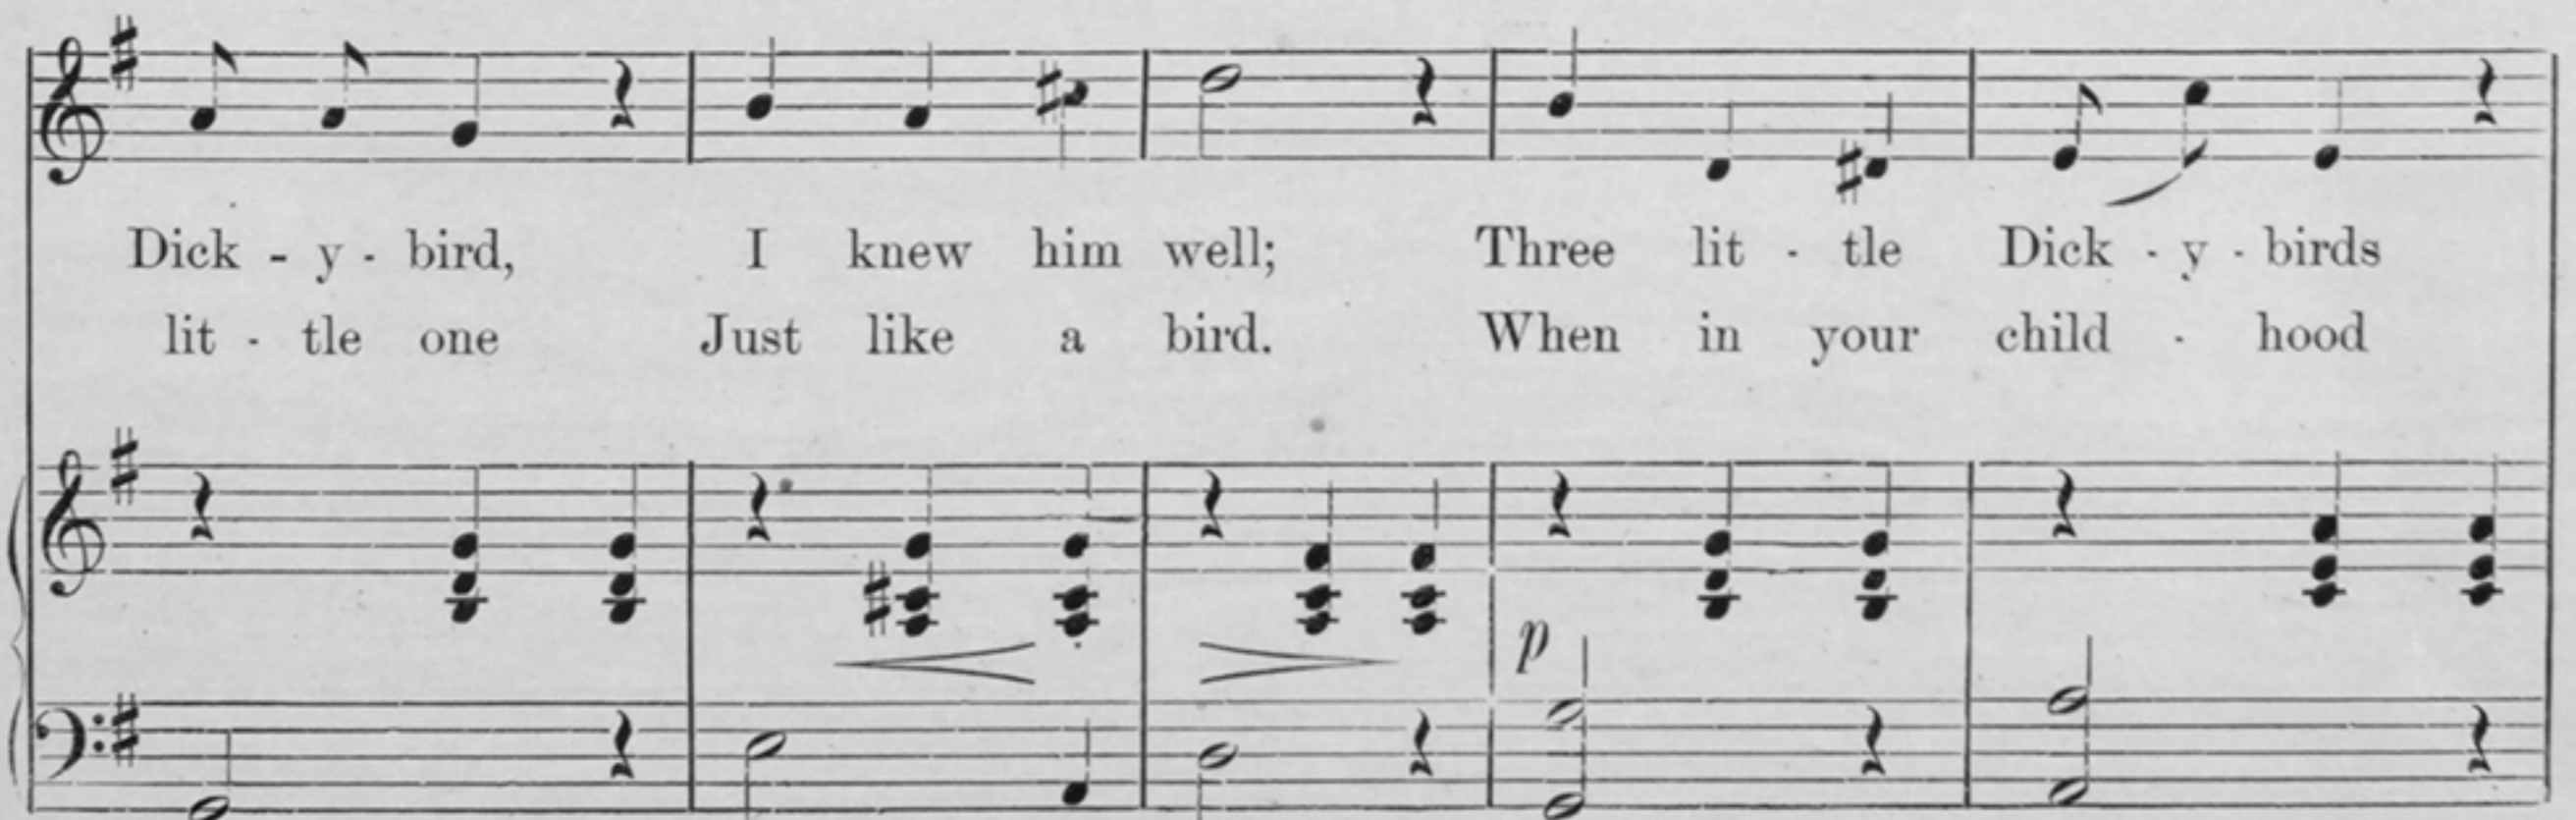

Open Your Mouth.

Words and Music by GUSTAVE H. KLINE.

INTRODUCTION. TEMPO WALTZ.

1. Lis - ten, my lit - tle one, A sto - ry I'll tell, 'Bout a small
2. Close your eyes tight - ly, And don't say a word, You are my

Dick - y - bird, I knew him well; Three lit - tle Dick - y - birds lit - tle one Just like a bird. When in your child - hood rit.

He had to keep, Till their eyes o - pen'd And they could peep,
You're left a - lone, You will be cry - ing, Till ma - ma has come.

So he would fly a - way Just for a - while, And when Dick For when she's gone a - way Just for a - while, And when she

rit. tempo.

would re - turn, How they would smile, For they were hun - gry and does re - turn, How you will smile, For you were hun - gry and rall.

thirs - ty all day; And when Dick would re - turn To them he'd say:
tired of play; Ma - ma will come to you And this she'll say:

f

Ped.

CHORUS. TEMPO WALTZ. NOTE.— p 1st time, f 2d time.

Shut your eyes tight - ly, O - pen your mouth, What I will give you,

p-f

You will find out; Don't keep a - peep - ing There with those eyes,

And I will give you a lit - tle sur - prise.

Close your eyes Tightly, and Open your Mouth. 3.