

TELL ME SOLDIER.

A favourite Duett,

Sung by Mr Jefferson & Mrs Wilmot in the

FOUNDLING OF THE FOREST,

written by W. Dimond Esqr

Composed by Michael Kelly

Philadelphia Printed for G Willig & Sold at his Musical Magazine N<sup>o</sup> 12 South 4th Street

Allegro

Rosabell La Cair

Tell me Soldier, tell me truly How often you have slain the foe? Go count the leaves when winds unruly, In autumn that from forest blow; Did e'er a captain worth a ransom Own you his conq'ror in the broil? I've twigd Field Marchals, pickings handsome, Twelve waggons loaded with<sup>e</sup> spoil.

Rosabell

La Cair

Rosabell

Oh loudly sound the Soldiers fame, La Cair O loudly sound the Oh flashy flaunt the Soldiers dame, O flashy flaunt the Soldiers fame, O loudly sound the Soldiers name, flashing flashing Soldiers dame, O flashy flaunt the Soldiers dame, dashing dashing sound the Soldiers fame, flashing flashing sound the Soldiers fame, flaunt the Soldiers dame, dashing dashing flaunt the Soldiers dame,

sound the Soldiers fame, sound the Soldiers fame,
flout the Soldier dame, flout the Soldiers dame, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, sound the Soldiers fame, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, flout the Soldiers dame, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, sound the Soldiers fame, sound the Soldier's fame, sound the Soldiers fame, flout the Soldiers dame, flout the Soldier's dame, flout the Soldiers dame,

sound the Soldiers fame, sound the Soldiers fame,
flout the Soldier dame, flout the Soldiers dame,

flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, sound the Soldiers fame, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing,
flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing, flout the Soldiers dame, flashing, dashing, flashing, dashing,

sound the Soldiers fame, sound the Soldier's fame, sound the Soldiers fame,
flout the Soldiers dame, flout the Soldier's dame, flout the Soldiers dame,