WHERE ARE NOW THE HOPES I CHERISHED,

(IN MIA ALFIN TU SEL)

WORDS BY
C.J. BEEFYNS
ARRANGED BY E. NELSON

From Bellini's Opera
LA NORMA.

BOSTON
Published by OLIVER DITSON & Co. 277 Wash. St.
NORMA'S SONG.

The Words by CHARLES JEFFERYS. The Music by BELLINI.

ANDANTE

ESPRESSIVO.

Where are now... the hopes I cherish'd, Where the joys that once were mine?... Gone for ever! all have perish'd, And the ru-in thou hast made.

Canst thou think as thou dost listen To thy children's art less songs... Of that moment when their fond hearts First shall feel their mother's wrongs, Ha! thou blighter's hand was thine! Look upon me, and remember

Thy Norma ere she was betrayed

again! ... and look exulting On the ruin thou hast made, ... Look again and look exulting On the