"YOU'LL MEET ME-WON'T YOU?"

Sung by

MR. WOOD

In the

Marriage of Figaro

The Poetry by

SUTTON ELLIOTT ESQ!

The Music by

JAMES C. MAEDER.

Pr. 38 G.

Philadelphia, Kretschmar & Nunns No. 70 S. Third St.

Edgington.

Allegretto.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1833 by Kretschmar & Nunns at the clerk's Office in the East Div. Dist. of Penn.
Oh love you not the sunset hour, when passion wakes

as sleeps the flower, you do love, don't you? You do love, don't you? And when that sunset hour shall come, and hush to rest man's busy hum, you'll meet me,

you'll meet me.
2.
You think of me when each bright star,
First throws its diamond beam afar,
You do Love — Don't you?
And then the moon's dear silv'ry light,
Shines forth a beacon of delight,
You'll meet me — Wont you?

3.
You think of me, when cold one's sleep,
But true hearts still their vigils keep,
You do Love — Don't you?
And at that soft soul breathing hour,
When all is Love within your bow'r,
You'll meet me — Wont you?
You'll meet me.