I Canna lo'e him less.

Ballad
Written by
CATHERINE H. WATERMAN.
The Music composed & respectfully dedicated TO HIS FRIEND
WILLIAM W. SMITH, ESQ. OF PHILADELPHIA.
BY
WILLIAM A. DEMPSTER.

Published by JOHN F. NUNNS, 184 Chestnut St.

Price 50 cts. net.
I Canna loe him less
Ballad
Written by
E. H. Waterman.
Music by William R. Dempster.

Published by W. O. Peters Cincinnati.
Copy right secured.

Moderato
con
Affetuoso

My cheek is un-co pale,
Mither, My heart is un-co chill; For sorrow wi' its icy breath Checks

il. ka happy thrill: And tho' in grief and wae Mither, His name I ever bless For tho' he's broken plight and vow I cannot love him

I canna lo'e him less. 242
less, For tho' he's broken plight and vow— I collà voce.

canna l'è him less.

The trysting Tree is green, Mither, Where we sae after met, It should hae with' er'd

I canna l'è him less.
lang a - go When he could first for - get The handsom bonny dell is bright, Mither Wi' sum - mer's gau - dy dress; While il - ka blos - som speaks o' him I canna lo'e him less, While il - ka blos - som

I canna lo'e him less. 242
speaks o' him I canna lo' e him less.

4th V. Then tell him when I

The hal thorn scents the die, Mither, That wi' my latest breath, I breeze, Mither, A long the ri ver side, And prayed for the fause cruel heart, That gave my own to far a cross the wa ters bright I see his swift boat

I canna lo' e him less.