THE ORPHANS PRAYER

AS PERFORMED BY THE

Choir of St. Patrick’s Cathedral,
March 17th 1860.

WORDS BY
D. MAJOR, Esq.

Music.

Composed and Dedicated to the Orphans by

W. R. BRISTOW.
Organist of the Cathedral.

New York.
Published by Firth & Hall, No. L Franklin Sq.
Wine in the Distillery, for the Southern District of N. York.
THE ORPHANS PRAYER.

Words by D. Major, Esq.

Music by W. R. Bristow.
Solo Soprano.

ANDANTE.

God the Orphans pray'r tis breath'd in tears in tears to Thee watch'd o'er them with thy Holy care and their protector protector be

Hear Hear O
CHORUS.

Tenore.

Alto.

Soprano.

Basso.

organ.

Orphan's Prayer.
sing thine endless praise thine endless praise.

solo soprano.

Oh Heavenly Father dry their tears their sinking hearts their hearts uphold teach them how vain are all their

Orphan's Prayer.
fears and keep them keep them in thy fold.

Tenore.

CHORUS.

Be...stow on them thy Heav'ly grace that they may know may

Alto.

Soprano.

Be...stow on them thy Heav'ly grace that they may know may

Basso.

CHORUS.

Organ.

Orphan's Prayer.
know thy ways and after death may see thy face and sing thine endless praise thine endless praise and

Sym: