

WHAT'S A' THE STEER, KIMMER?

THE ADMIR'D SCOTCH BALLAD,
 As sung by MRS F. WEBSTER.
 Composed by ALEXANDER LEE.

Pr. 25 cts. nett.

BOSTON
 Published by PRENTISS Joy's Building 81 Washington St.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1840 by H. Prentiss in the Clerk's office of the District Court of Mass

B.W. Thayer's Lithography Boston.

WHAT'S A' THE STEER KIMMER.

Music by A. LEE.

ALLEGRO. p

gra loco.

What's a' the steer Kimmer what's a' the steer Jamie is landed and soon he will be here Go lace your boddice blue lassie lace your boddice

pp

blue Put on your sunday claites and trim your cap a new For I'm right glad a heart Kimmer right glad a heart I ha'e a bonnie breast knot and for his sake I'll weait Sin Jamie is come hame we hae nae care to fear Bid the neighbours all come down and welcome Jamie here.

Soave

2

Where's Donald Todd lassie rin fetch him here
 Bid him bring his pipes lassie bid him tune rin clear
 For we'll taste the barley mow— foot it too and fro
 Sin Jamie is come hame we'll gie him hearty cheer
 And its what's a' the steer Kimmer what's a' the steer
 Jamie is landed and soon he will be here
 Bid Allan Ramsay rin bid him kill a fatted deer
 O the neighbours little ken how welcome Jamie here.

hae nae care to fear Bid the neighbours all come down and welcome Jamie here.

2

Where's Donald Todd lassie rin fetch him here
 Bid him bring his pipes lassie bid him tune rin clear
 For we'll taste the barley mow— foot it too and fro
 Sin Jamie is come hame we'll gie him hearty cheer
 And its what's a' the steer Kimmer what's a' the steer
 Jamie is landed and soon he will be here
 Bid Allan Ramsay rin bid him kill a fatted deer
 O the neighbours little ken how welcome Jamie here.