THE JOYS OF HARVEST HOME

FARMERS GLEE

Composed by

EVERETT L. BAKER.

BUFFALO
Published by J. SAGE & SONS 209 Main St.

Entered according to Act of Congress, 1887, by J. Sage & Sons, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of N.York.
THE

JOYS OF HARVEST HOME.

Words selected.  Music by EVERETT L. BAKER.

Allegro con spirito.

1. The larks early warning, proclaims the bright morning. The blithe sons of

2. Behold they're now heaping, the loaded cart creeping. A loft stands labor for harvest prepares. From sleep lightly springing, the song of joy proudly arranging the sheaves; And now homeward bringing, the harvest home singing, His part with his neighbor each hastens to bear:

The prospect is singing, Each voice proclaims loudly the joy he receives:

While evening ad-

cheering, with plenty appearing, With friendship endearing the labor they vancing, with singing and dancing, Their pleasure enhancing makes perfect their share: The cup of pure pleasure, they fill in full measure.

Tempo primo.
The cup of pure

bliss: Thus friendship excited by virtues united. Thus friendship ex.
For earth's richest treasure contentment is pleasure, they fill in full measure, cited, by virtues united, attracts me delighted to scenes such as there is there is there, is there...... The lark's early warning pro-this, as this, as this, as this...... The cup of pure pleasure, they claims the bright morning, The blithe sons of labor for harvest prepare.

fill in full measure, For earth's richest treasure contentment is there.