MY PRAIRIE HOME

3

G. F. ROOT.

Slowly and with expression.

The musical score is written in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a simple harmonic accompaniment in the left hand. The vocal line is marked 'Slowly and with expression' and contains the following lyrics:

O my heart is ever long - ing, Longing for my prairie home, Where bright the sunny hours of glad - ness Ever on my childhood shone;

Entered according to Act of Congress AD 1856 by Firth Pond & Co in the Clerks office of the District Court of the Southern Dis^t of New York.

There amid its glorious beau - - ty Loving mem'ry folds her wing,

Resting where the heart's af - fee - tions Tenderly and fondly cling.

CHORUS, last time PIANISSIMO.

A I R.

Far away the crystal riv - - er, Far away the heather's bloom,

Far away the crystal riv - - er, Far the heather's bloom,

T E N O R.

Far away the crystal riv - - er, Far the heather's bloom,

B A S S.

Far the loving friends of child-hood, Far, O far my prairie home.

Far the loving friends of child-hood, Far, O far my prairie home.

Far the loving friends of child-hood, Far, O far my prairie home.

2^d In that bright and happy dwelling, Dearer far than homes of pride, How
 3^d Brother true and noble hearted, Darling sister fair and kind, Dear many a treasur'd scene of gladness 'Ever in my heart a-bide;

 friends that gather by the hearthstone, Round you all my love is twined;

There a father's nightly bless-ing Fell like music on my ear,
 O do not for-get me dear ones While so far a-way I roam,

And each grief and care was banished By a gentle mother's tear.
 For my heart is ev-er longing, Longing for my prairie home.

CHORUS.
