

To Wm. H. Nevil.

EVER MY SPIRIT
AWAKENS TO THEE

ANSWER TO

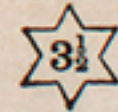

BEAUTIFUL DREAMER.

WORDS BY

MISS MAGGIE WILLIAMS.

MUSIC BY

S. MAACA.

PHILADELPHIA:

Published by LEE & WALKER, 722 Chestnut Street.

NEW YORK:
W. A. POND & CO.

BOSTON:
O. DITSON & CO.

CINCINNATI:
A. C. PETERS & BRO.

CLEVELAND:
S. BRAINARD & CO.

Entered according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1865, by W. R. SMITH, Agt., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

ELECTROTYPED BY

L. JOHNSON & CO., PHILA.

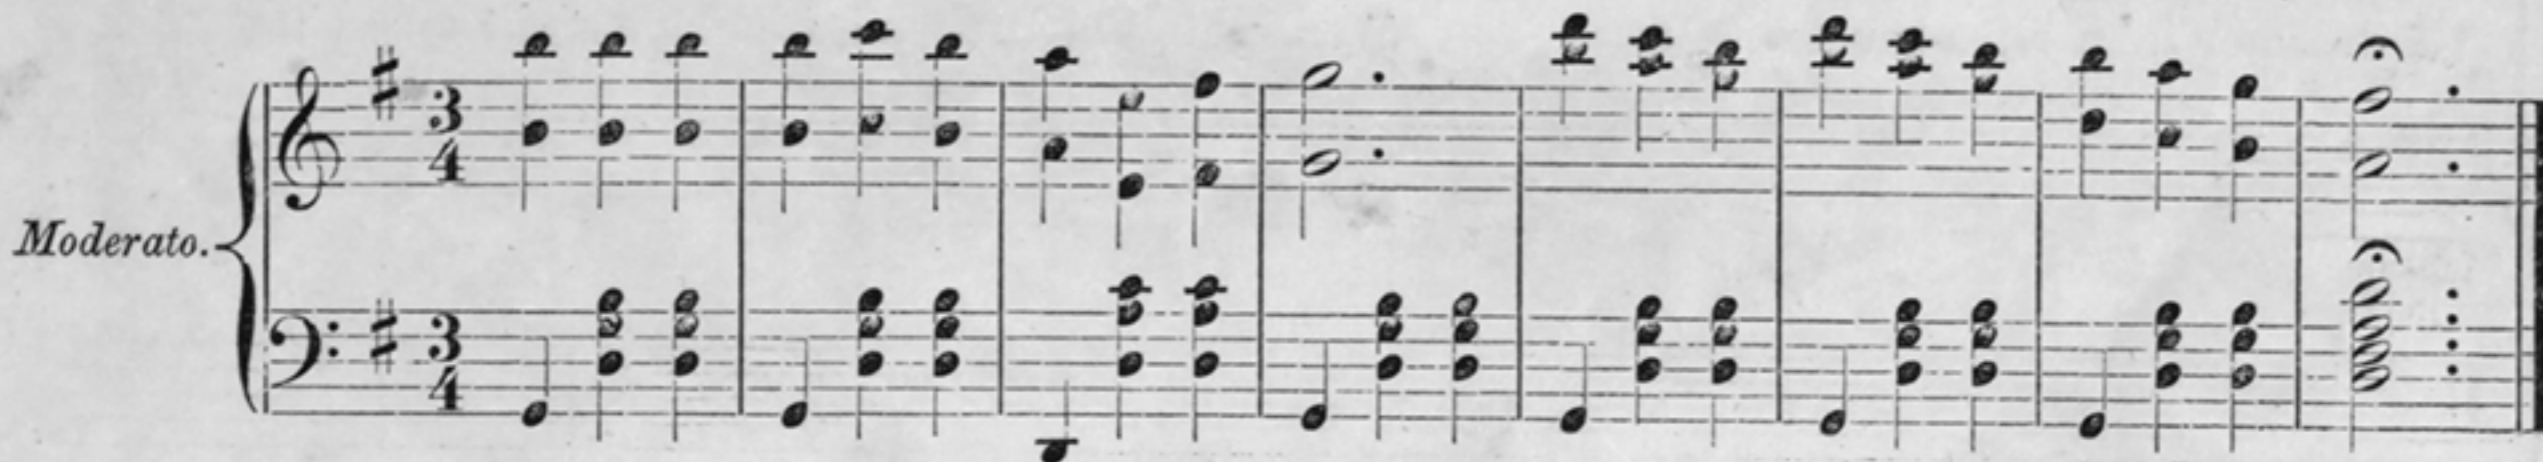

EVER MY SPIRIT AWAKENS TO THEE.

ANSWER TO BEAUTIFUL DREAMER.

WORDS by Miss Maggie Williams.

MUSIC by E. Mack.

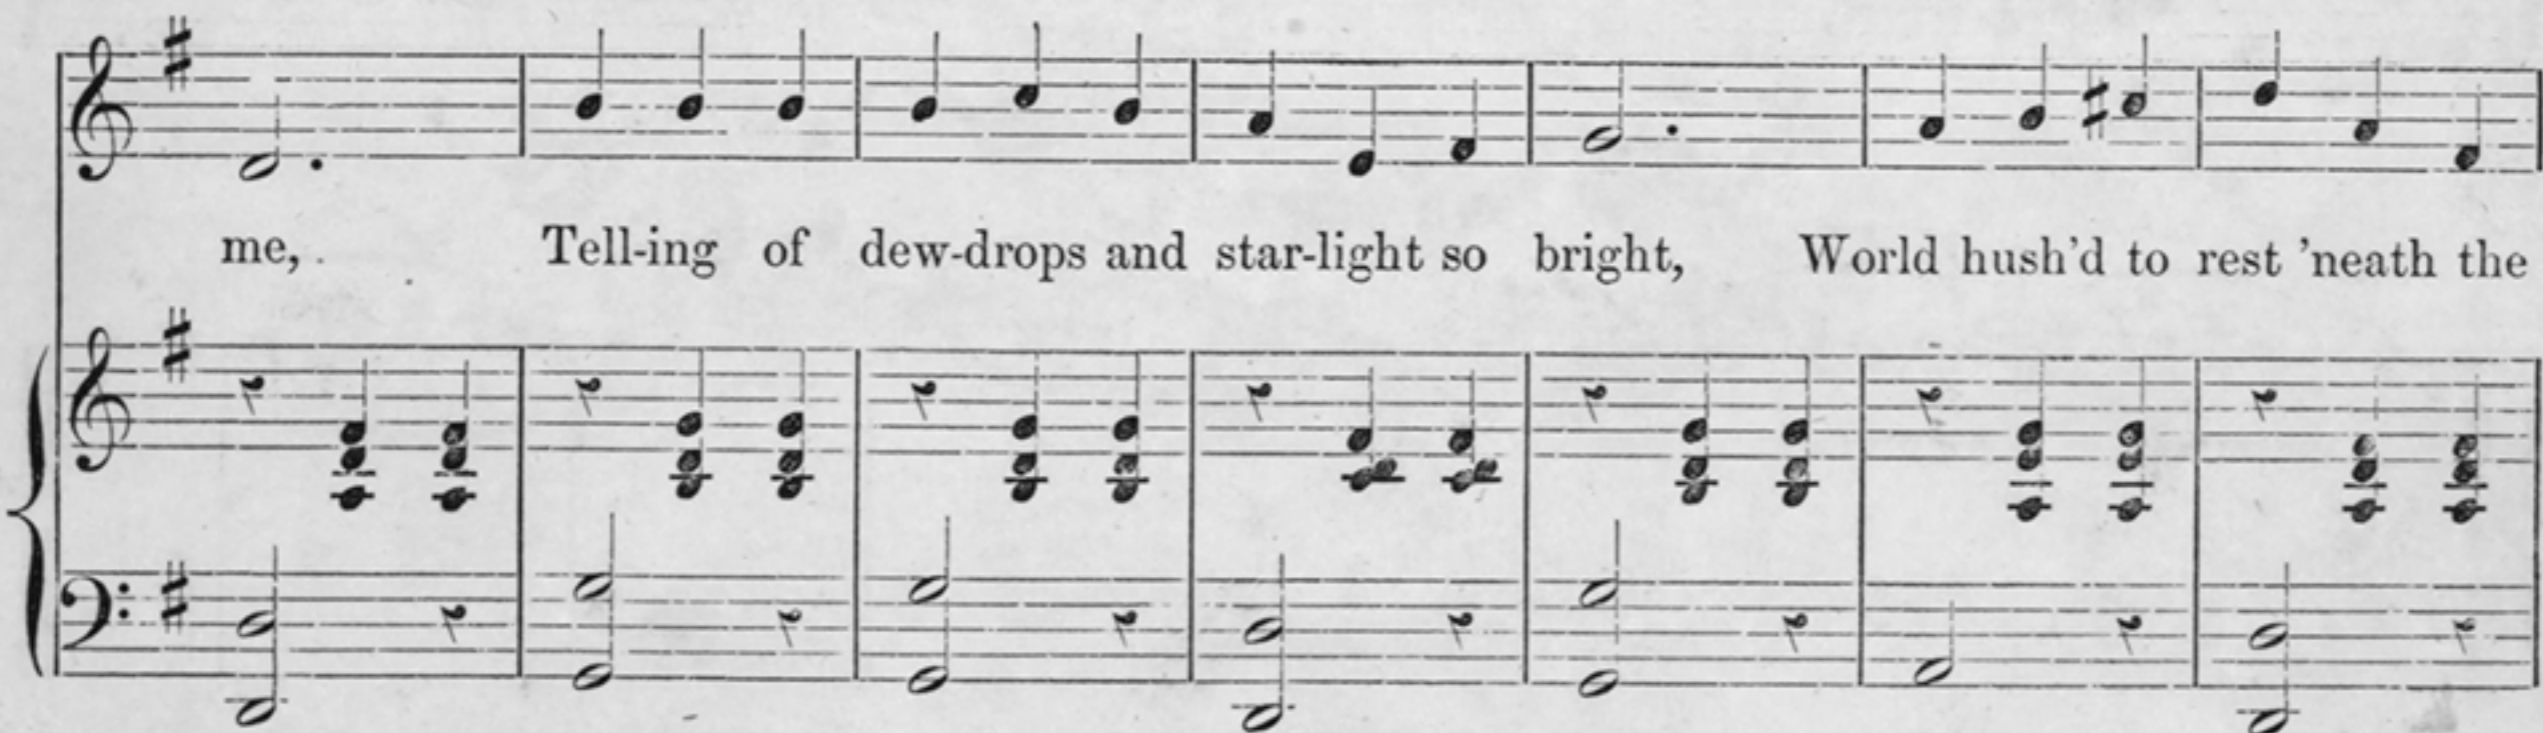

Moderato.

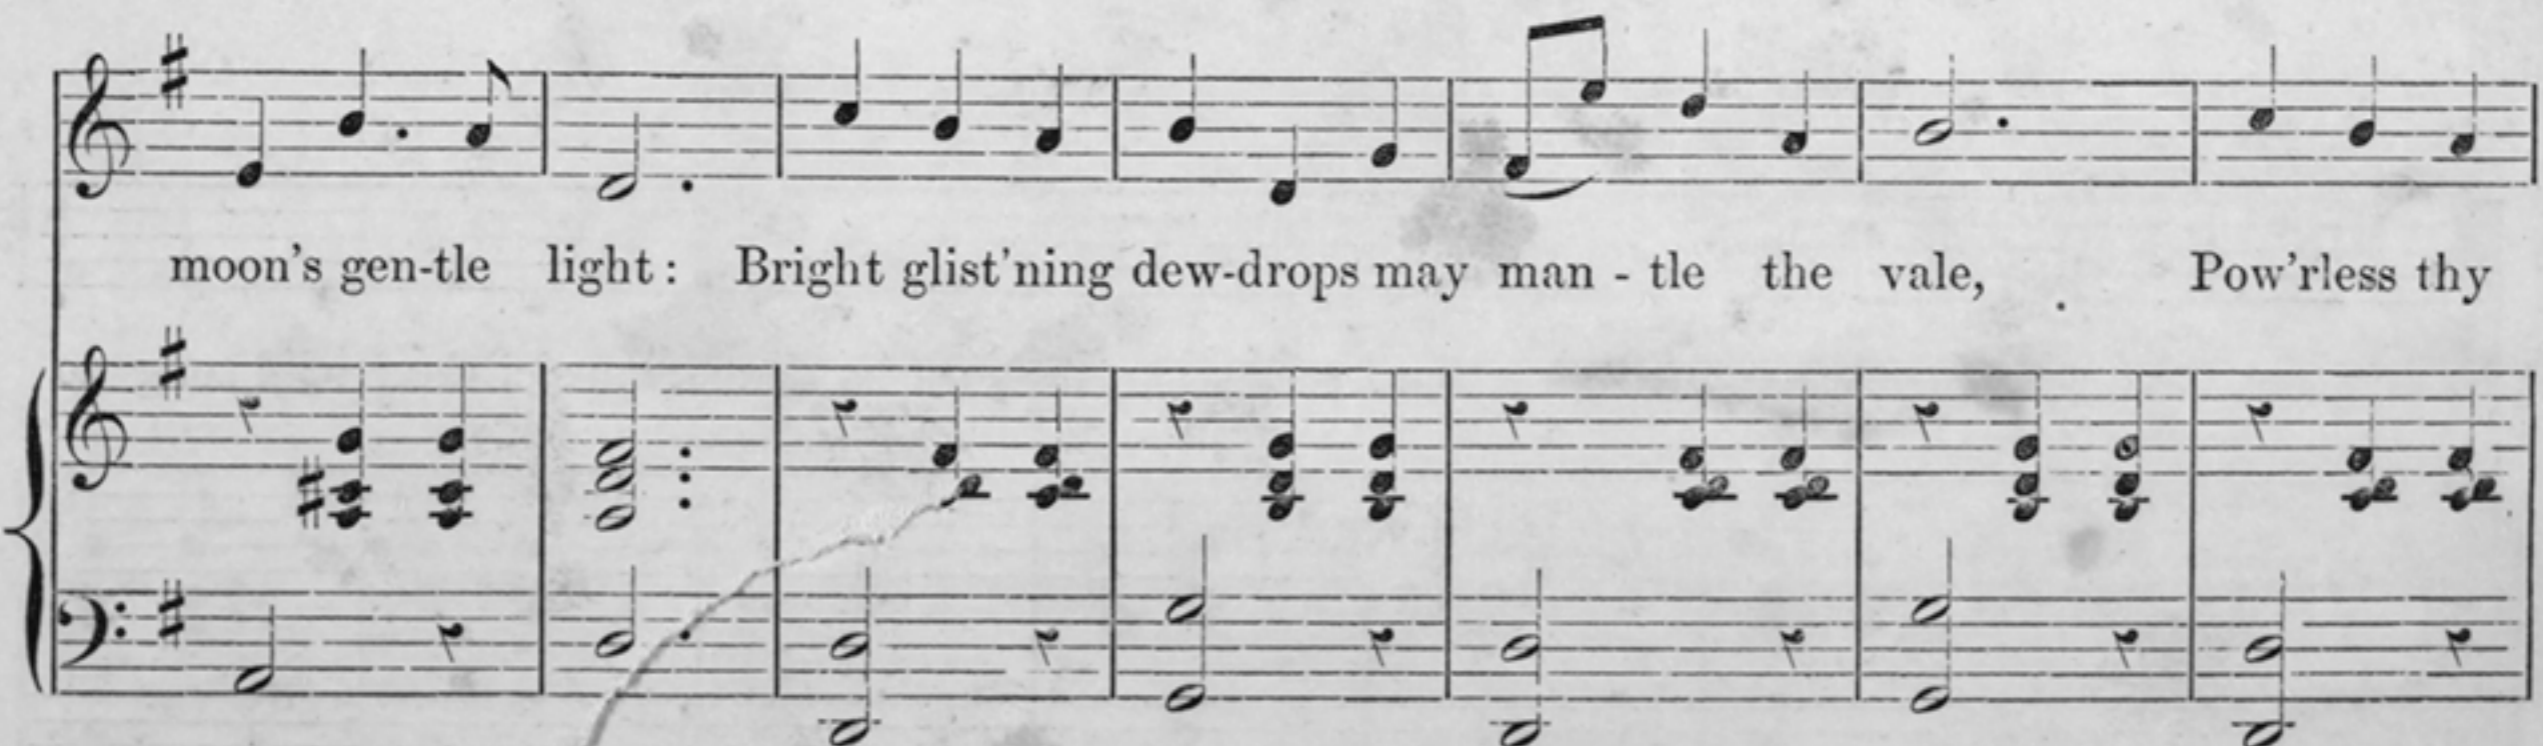

Waked by the notes of sweet mel - o - dy, Lis - ten! the soft strains are speaking to me, Tell - ing of dew - drops and star - light so bright, World hush'd to rest 'neath the moon's gen - tle light: Bright glist'ning dew - drops may man - tle the vale, Pow'rless thy

Just issued, "WHY DON'T THEY DO SO NOW?" Excellent Comic Song, by E. F. Dixey. 35 cents.
"THE LONE HEART." Beautiful Ballad, by Eastburn. 30 cents.

dreamer from slum-ber to free; Star-light grow dim and mild moonlight may pale,

Ev - er my spir - it a - wa - kens to thee, Ev - er my spir - it a - wa - kens to thee.

Mer-maids may chant their notes o'er the sea, Vain is their mu-sic, their wild song to me, O - ver the streamlet light breez-es be borne, Va - pors a - ri-sing may wait for the morn: Not the light breez-es a - ri - sing to - night Tell the sweet tale of thy love un - to me; Nor the bright moon with its beau-ty and light;

Ev - er my spir - it a - wa-kens to thee, Ev - er my spir - it a - wa-kens to thee.