WAITING IN THE TWILIGHT.

BALLAD.

Words by GEORGE COOPER.

Music by J. R. THOMAS.

Andantino.

1. Waiting in the twilight, Will he, will he come?
2. Gentle bird of ev'ning, Chide him for delay;

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1868, by J. L. PETERS, in the Dist. Court of the U. States for the District of New Jersey.
Whisper gentle zephyrs, In the leafy gloom.
Tell him that I linger, Lead him on his way!

Tell me, chirping cricket, Tell me, grows it late?
Oh! to hear his footsteps, For the days are lone;

How my heart is longing While I sadly wait.
Life is dark without, thee Come to me, my own!
Waiting in the twilight, Oh........... to see him now!

Oh, to find his kisses Warm up-on my brow!
