O REMEMBER.

Moderato con express.

J. H. McNaughton.

O re-mem-ber the heart is the trea-sure Worth more than the gems of the sea,
And re-mem-ber a wealth beyond mea-sure
In this heart I am keep-ing for thee!
Thou wilt go, love, but do not forget me. When around thee are smiling the gay.

When the smile of a proud one shall greet thee, o remember the youth far away. O.............. remember the heart is the treasure Worth colla voce a tempo

more than the gems of the sea, And remember a wealth beyond mea - sure

In this heart I am keeping for thee,
In this heart Im

keep - ing, keep - ing for thee .... a tempo

When be - fore thee glides Beau - ty all smi - ling,

Re - mem - ber that "beau - ty is vain."
And when Wealth comes with splendor beguiling, O beware! follow not in his train.

O remember the cot on the mountain, And the spot of our earliest vow, The valley, the garden, the fountain, And the heart loving ever as now. O ad lib:

colla voce
member the heart is the treasure Worth more than the gems of the sea,
And remember a wealth beyond measure
In this heart I am keeping for thee,
In this heart I'm keeping, keeping for thee.
