Oh say thou best and brightest

SONG

Words by THOMAS MOORE.

Music by
W. H. J. GRAHAM.

Author of
"FAREWELL" REMEMBRANCE" "ASK IF I LOVE THEE" & C. & C.

NEW YORK
Wm. A. Pond & Co. 547 Broadway.

Entered according to Act of Congress 1855 by W. A. Pond & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the South District of N.Y.
Oh! say thou best and brightest,
If when that hour recalling,
My from first love and my last,
When he whom
which he dates his woes, Thou feel'st a now thou slightest From life's dark scene hath tear-drop falling Ah! blush not while it pass'd, Will kinder thoughts then move thee?

flows, But all the past forgiving.

Will pity wake one thrill? For Bend gently o'er his shrine. And him who lived to love thee, and dying say this heart when living, with all its lov'd thee still, For him who lived to love faults 'twas mine, And say this heart when livthee, and dying lov'd thee still.

ing, with all its faults 'twas mine.