All among the Roses

Delehanty & Herriger's - Charming Song

Words & Music by W.H. Delehanty

SONG 40 Cts.

SCHOTTISCH 40 Cts.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1872, by M. Gray, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

PUBLISHED BY M. GRAY,

623 & 625 Clay Street, San Francisco.

101 First Street, Portland.
ALL AMONG THE ROSES.

Words and Music by W.H. DELEHANTY. Arranged by GEO.T. EVANS.

Tempo di Schottische.

3. Now, forget not to remember When in love you chance to be, Try and

1. In an ivy covered cottage, Hidden back of oaken trees, Lives a

2. There's a pretty white Camellia Ever glowing in her hair. Love-ly

Entered according to Act of Congress A.D. 1872 by M.Gray, in the office the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

M.G._492
keep in all your feelings not act foolishly like me for I live on, hoping dreaming of a lovely little maiden, blythe and happy as you please. Where upon a low veranda every violets and roses blooming in her face so fair; little stars, and merry sunshine in her coming joyous day. When I'll make of one camelia, such a lovely sweet bouquet, summer's even tide I sit amid the flowers, fair camelia by my side.

eyes so bright and gay and a choir of angels singing in the voice of millicie may.

All among the roses. Making sweet proposes.

Love-ly, laughing, soul bewitching.
Sweet Camilla May, Captivating aggravating never tired of play, Flitting like a little birdie, Happy light and gay, Kill me or I'll die with love, for DANCE.
sweet Camilla May.

M. G. 492