ARE WE FORGOTTEN WHEN WE'RE GONE.

Words and Music by Maj.J.Barton.

Arr'd by S.L.Tyler.

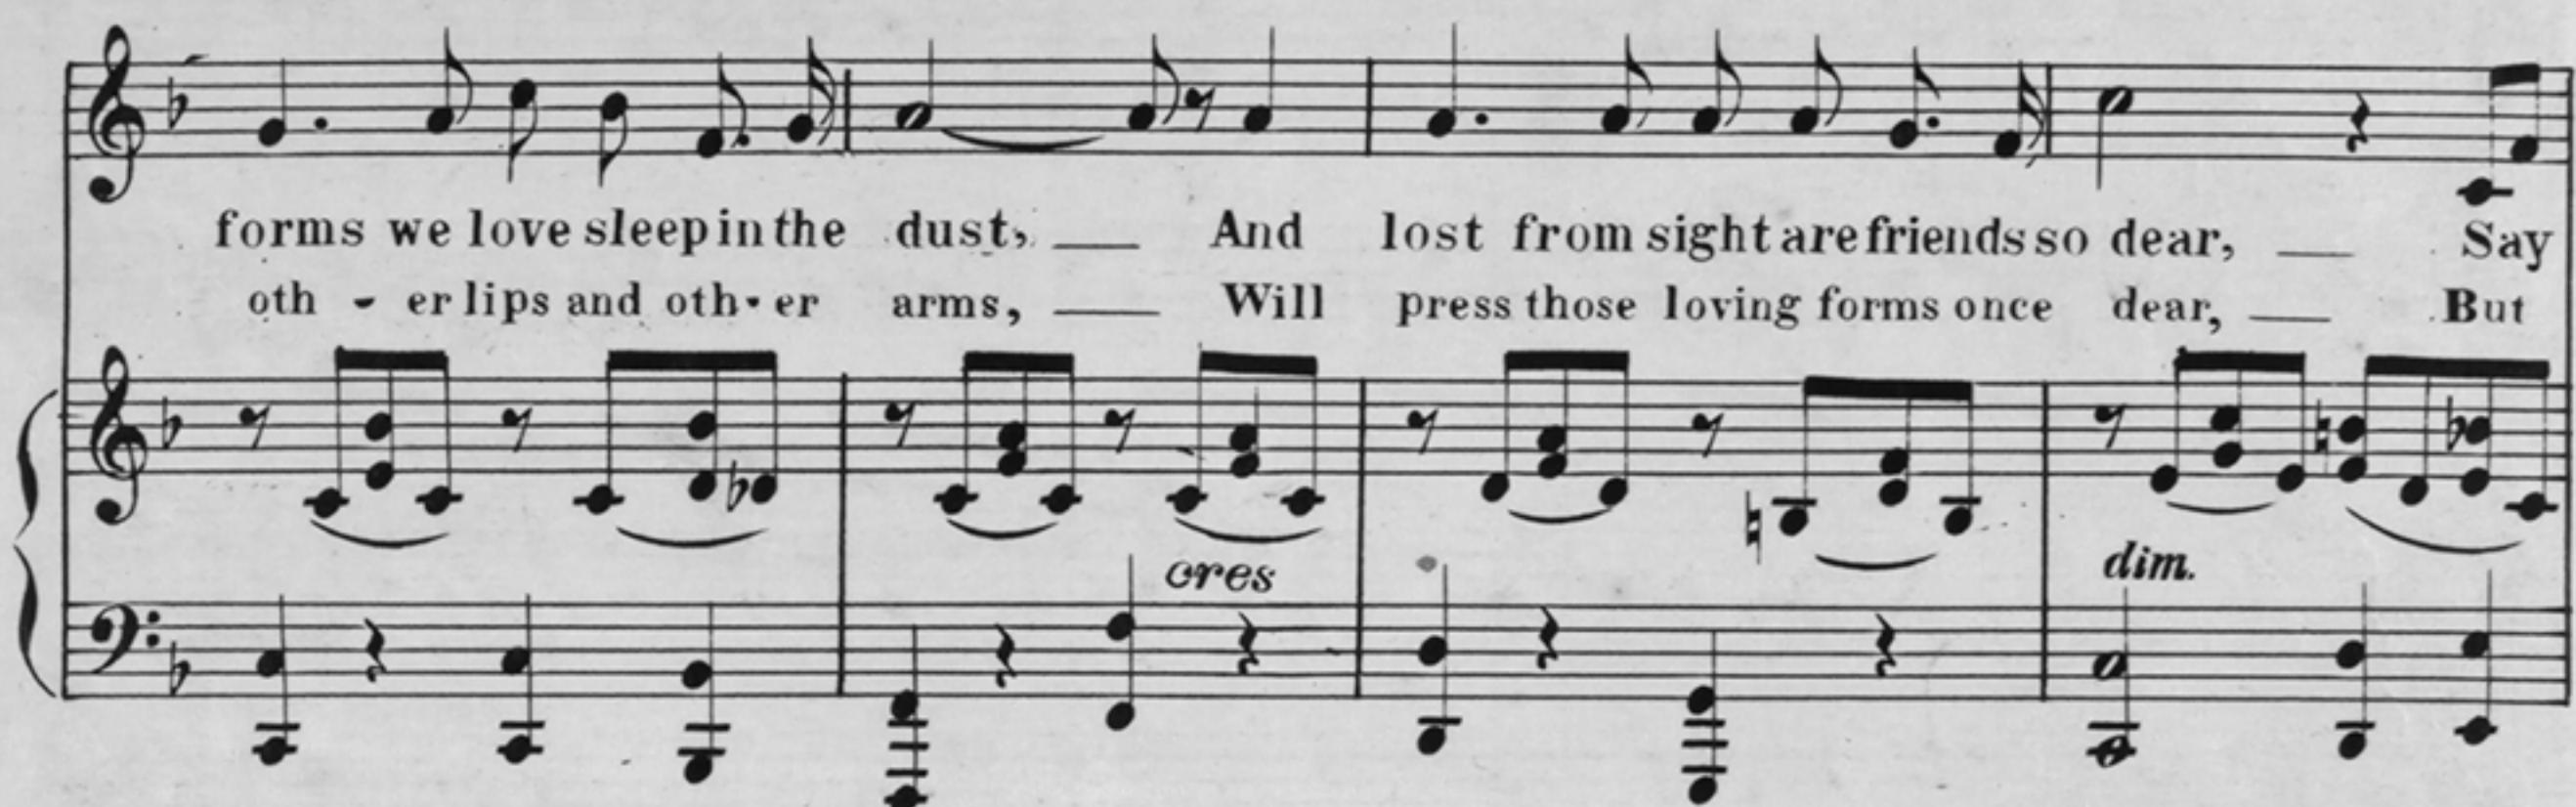

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff shows a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and common time. It features a piano part with bass and treble clefs and a vocal part with a melodic line. The middle staff shows a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and common time. It features a piano part with bass and treble clefs and a vocal part with a melodic line. The bottom staff shows a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and common time. It features a piano part with bass and treble clefs and a vocal part with a melodic line. The lyrics are written below the bottom staff:

we for-got-ten when we're gone? Are all lifes hopes and dreams in vain? Do we for-got-ten when we're gone? The void we've left can no one fill? Or those who linger round our home? — E'er fondly wish for us again? — The does the busy world move on, — Regardless of the pulse that's still? — Soon cres.

forms we love sleep in the dust, — And lost from sight are friends so dear, — Say other lips and other arms, — Will press those loving forms once dear, — But cres. dim.

do they sometimes think of us? — And fondly wish that we were here, — Say none will sigh that we are gone — Or drop one single heartfelt tear, — But

cres. dim.
do they sometimes think of us? — And fondly wish that we were here.
none will sigh that we are gone, — Or drop one single heartfelt tear.

cres. dim.

CHORUS.

Sopr. Alto. Ten. Bass.

Are we forgotten when we're gone? Are all lifes hopes and dreams in vain?

Are we forgotten when we're gone? Are all lifes hopes and dreams in vain?

Do those who linger round our home, E'er fondly wish for us again?

vain? Do those who linger round our home, round our home E'er fondly wish for us again? us again?
