beau - ti - ful scenes To be seen in Fair - mount Park So I were en - tranc'd So beau - ti - ful she seem'd My then what joy She smiled and said so sweet That.

thought that I would take a stroll To en - joy a jol - ly lark. Such hap - pi - ness it knew no bounds When I found 'twas not a dream I it gave her great hap - pi - ness A gent like me to meet, We scenes as I did there be - hold I ne'er did see be - fore, The lost no time in seek - ing for This dam - sel, Oh! so fair I walk'd a - bout a - mong the trees I my love did there re - veal We sta - tue of a liv - ing girl That any one might a - dore.

knew then that I'd lost my heart On the girl with the gol - den hair.
 spoke of fu - ture hap - pi - ness And there our vows did seal.

While strol-ling in the Park, While strol-ling in the Park, The scenes are rare that I saw there, While strol-ling in the Park.
