PIANO.

3. From the clock-peddler's cart to the junk-shop it went, Where its cog-wheels were sundered one by one;... And the
4. "An ex - tremely hard case!" said the junk-dealer's wife, As she carved it for kindling-wood and sighed— That ma -

1. Once a - gain have I roamed thro' the old-fashioned house, Where my grandfather spent his ninety years.... There are
2. While we talked of the old clock they all ran it down, Tho' they claimed that it couldn't be made to run.... It was brass - found-er joked as they writhed in the flames—"Melt'em up," says he; "then they will run."

hog - a - ny case, with its quaint, figured face, Which so long was my grandfather's pride.

There is
"There is

stran - gers in charge, and the change they have wrought—Oh! it sad - dens me, ev - en to tears.
use - less, they said— it was quite out of style; Built, no doubt, just about the year One.

Dear old
And the grief in my heart, there are tears in my eyes, Yet in - dig-nant-ly the sight I re - call hope for the small; there's a chance for us all; For the mighty ones of Time, they must fall!"

Of that Says that clock! when they found you were speechless from grief, Then they went and swapped you off, case and all, words echoed round, with a faint, mocking sound, As if some one gave as-sent to it all:

For that
'Twas that

vain, stuck-up thing (tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick), Of that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.
vain, stuck-up thing (tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick), Says that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.

vain, stuck-up thing (tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick), For that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.
vain, stuck-up thing (tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick), 'Twas that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.

CHORUS.

Grand - fa - ther sleeps in his grave: Strange steps resound in the hall!.... And there's that vain, stuck-up thing (tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick), There's that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.

Grand - fa - ther sleeps in his grave: Strange steps resound in the hall!....

There's that vain, stuck-up thing on the wall.
