

Susie had a Mockingbird

SONG AND DANCE

Composed by
GEO. MAYWOOD

Published by ROOT & GADY, Chicago.

CHICAGO LITH. CO. CHICAGO.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1871 by Root & Gady in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington

SUSIE HAD A MOCKING BIRD.

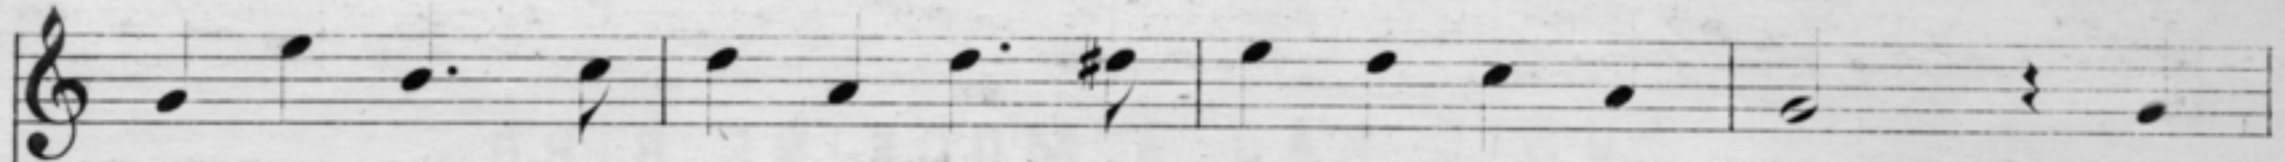

GEO. MAYWOOD.

PIANO.

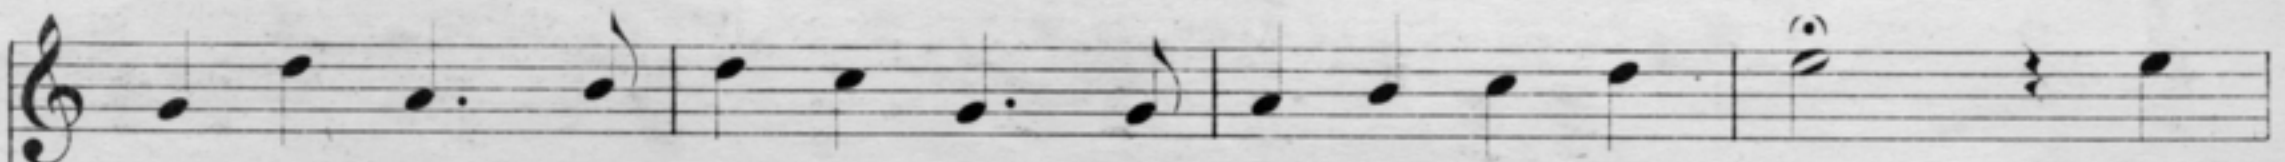

Dance.

Song.

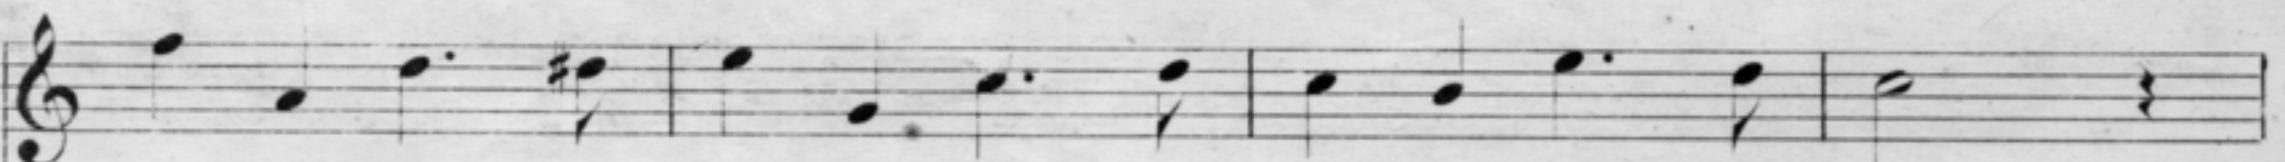

Su - sie had a mock - ing bird, In a cage so gay, She Spring time came, the flowers in bloom, Their beau - ty did un - fold, The
 In this song the les - son taught, I plain - ly here would state, Con - loved him more than all the world, And fed him ev - 'ry day. The mock - ing bird would sing no more, As hap - py, as of old. He sid - er al - ways, what you do, Be - fore it is too late. Time lit - tle bird sang mer - ri - ly, When - e'er she was a - bout, But begged of Su - sie let me free, But for an hour or so, And flies a - way, and you are old, Your work has been in vain, And Su - sie kept an eye on him, And nev - er let him out.

 trust - ing in his pro - mis - es She let her darl - ing go.
 child - hood days, like Su - sie's bird, Will nev - er come a - gain.

CHORUS.

For bir - die hush, through tree and bush, Once gone, you pray in mf Dance. mf Dance.

vain, "Bir-die dar - ling, come to Sue," But he'll not come a - gain,

"Bir-die dar - ling, come to Sue," But he'll not come a - gain.

Dance. tr

mf tr tr