"PEEK-A-BOO!"

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words and Music by WM. J. SCANLAN.

The piano introduction consists of five measures. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The first measure is marked mf. The fifth measure is marked rall.

The first part of the song features a vocal line with three verses and a piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The first verse is: "1. On a cold winter's ev' - ning, when bus'-ness is done, And to your home you re-". The second verse is: "2. Oh, my heart's al-ways light when at home with my wife, There joy and peace ev - er". The third verse is: "3. When the sun - shine of youth fades, and age bends us low, - Joys, like the birds, flown a -".

The second part of the song features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The lyrics are: "tire, What a pleas - ure it is to have a bright bouncing boy, One whom you love to ad-reign; With my boy on my knee I'm as happy as can be, I nev - er knew care or way; Then the smiles of our children ev - er brighten the path, Leading where loved ones do".
