

PROFESSIONAL COPY. THE GIRL I LOVED ALL SUMMER.

E. P. PAULL MUSIC CO., PUBLISHERS AND JOBBERS,
20 E. 17th St.,
New York.

Words and Music by Chas. Shackford.

Tempo di Valse.

mf

You may all sing of your sweet-hearts If you ask me what her name is — And the girl that you love best — But I met the — That's no use I'll nev - er tell — For I'm just a cresc.

girl last summer — Who is sweet - er than the rest. — She's a lit - tle jeal-ous Of the girl I love so well. — But I'll face so plump and pret - ty _____ And a man - ner show you all her pic - ture _____ That will fill your p erese.

shy and coy _____ She's the girl I loved all heart with joy _____ That's the girl I loved all f p sum-mer _____ And she say she loves this boy _____ She's the sum-mer _____ And I know she loves her boy _____ p

REFRAIN.

girl I loved all summer _____ And she thinks the world of $\frac{3}{4}$

me _____ Ev-'ry eve' - ning you will find me _____ At her home just af - ter tea _____ All the boys have tried to win her _____ But she shook them all you see _____ She's the girl I've loved all summer _____ And she's going to mar - ry me. _____