1. I went last night to see my girl, had no oth-er place to
2. I married a widow three weeks a-go, I had nothing else to go. Her fa-ther was stand-ing in the door, he had no place to do, But Id been mar-ried once be-fore And of chil-dren I had

go. I said Mister Jones how do you do? just then he raised me two, But since that time I've been on a spree for my wife she's been with his shoe, Now I'll have to find some oth - er place to go, chasing me, So I'll have to find some oth - er place to go

CHORUS.

p Love me, love me Lou, Say you love me do! If you love me as I love you, Why come and kiss your ba - by, do! Love me, love me Lou!

If you love me true, I'll be

Pa - pa, you'll be Ma - ma, If you love me Lou.

Cycling now is all the rage, and folks are on the go,
 My wife has a wheel and constantly she's riding to and fro,
 She has no bloomers but wears my pants, so do her brothers, cousins and aunts,
 While I stay home, there's no p'ace I can go.

A coon sat on a powder keg, he was singing soft and low,
 He was also smoking a cigarette, poor nigger didn't know.
 The coon began to whoop and cough, when bang! powder, it went off,
 And he soon found some other place to go.

— ANOTHER HIT. —

“IF THEY WRITE THAT I’M FORGIVEN, I’LL GO HOME.”

Answer to “JUST TELL THEM THAT YOU SAW ME.”
