A ver - y da - cent neigh - bor hood, I've lived in man - y years, Wid He gives us An - nie Roo - ney swate, Wid var - i - a - tions fine! The We once were fat and heart - y, too, But now we're grow - ing thin; There's The land - lord cant col - lect his rint, He drives him from the dure! Po -

Flan - i - gan and Bran - i - gan, The Clan - ceys and Mc - Cleres; We way in which he plays it scares The clothes all off the line; You not a whole pane in the house, The walls are tumb - ling in; Mc -
 - lice - men wont stay on the bate, We'll all go cra - zy sure! It's hap - py were as tur - tle doves, Wid noth - ing to an - noy; Till Mc - have to yell out, when you spake, He drives a - way the cats; For they'd

 - Clere's two young ones went in fits, One ave - ning af - ter tea; And the worse than bliz - zards and cy - clones, When he be - gins to play; But ill

Fad - den he moved in be - low, And came to spoil our joy!
 rath - er much be pelt - ed wid Old tae - cups and brick bats!
 old tin roof be - gan to leak When he struck up - per "C"!
 get some din - ny - mite and blow That cor - net up, some - day!
