

NOTICE—This Song can be put on straight, without using word "Who" if desired.

PROFESSIONAL COPY.

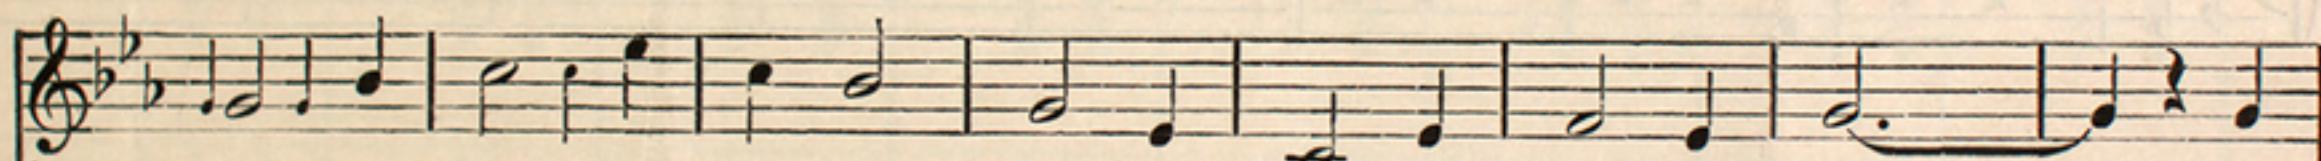

Who? Miss Nelly McIntyre.

PLEASE ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF SONG, AND SEND FOR ORCHESTRATION IF WANTED. SEND ROUTE AHEAD, OR PERMANENT ADDRESS.

Words and Music by ALB. H. FITZ.

Composer of "WON'T YOU COME TO MY TEA PARTY"

PIANO.

1. There's a lit - tle la - dy, boys, that lives just down the way,..... Who's
2. On Christmas eve, with bas - ket filled, she starts out from her home,..... And
3. Last Saturday night I went o - ver to the "fair" at Reil - ly's hall,..... By Copyright, 1896, by Alb. H. Fitz. All rights reserved.

ANDERSON BROS., MUSIC TYPOGRAPHERS, 584 DEARBORN ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

NOTE—Singer can use one of the following, to be spoken during each verse and chorus:

Who?

Well, Who?

Well, Who, Anyhow?

Who Did?

Well, Who Did?

Well, who's this you're talking about?

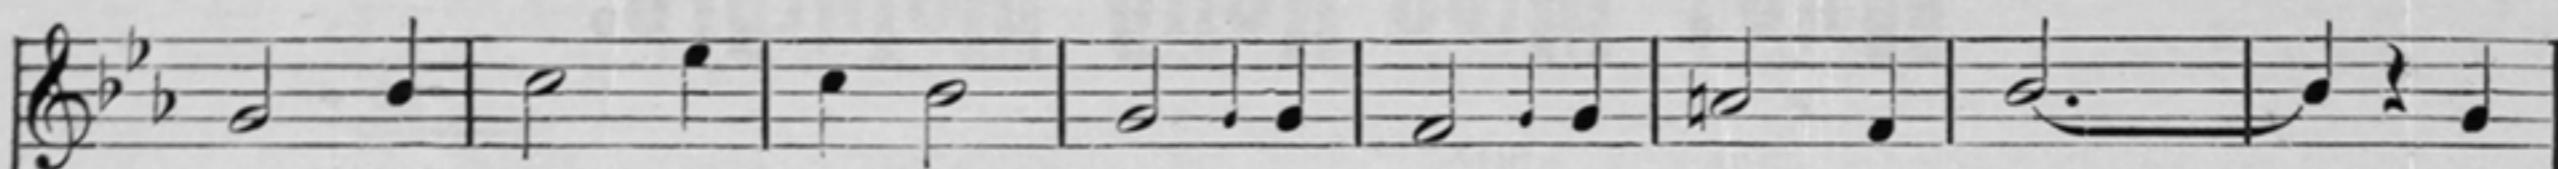

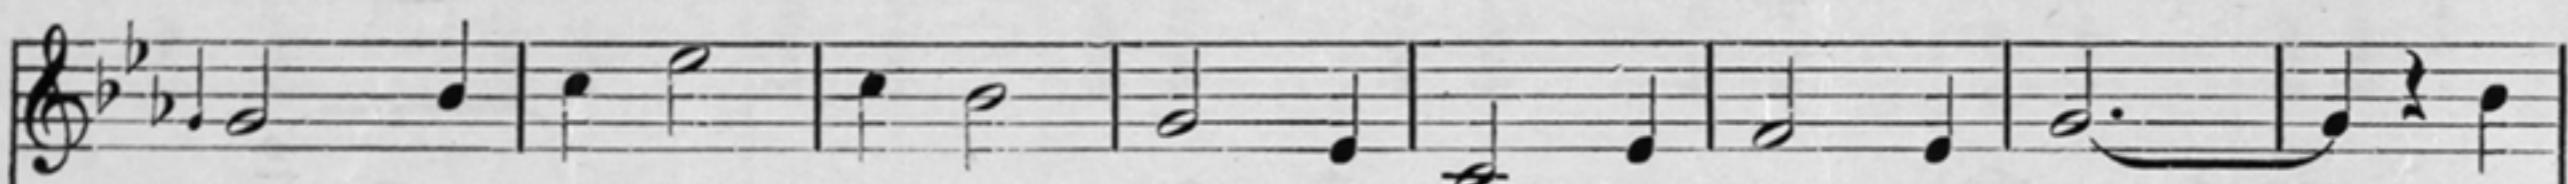

Well, I don't know—who did?

PUBLISHED BY

A. H. FITZ MUSIC CO.,

20 E. 17th Street,

N. Y. CITY.

fam - 'ly's not a wealth-y one, yet none of them stand higher,..... For bring joy to the lit - tle ones is just her heart's de - sire,..... Now e-lev'n o - clock they count-ed up, but num - ber nine was higher;..... Who (Spoken) Who?

she's the pride of the whole East Side, Miss Nelly McIntyre..... how can you but love her too, Miss Nelly McIntyre..... do you think now took that prize? Miss Nelly McIntyre.....

f = Who? p

CHORUS. Brilliant.

Just a - round the cor-ner, boys, in that ten - e-ment row,..... A lit - tle dash of sun - shine, whom they all do love so.....

She's a lit - tle la - dy,..... and one they all ad - mire..... She's (Spoken) Who?

D. S.

made a "hit" with me, now, boys, Miss Nel - ly Mc - In - tyre.....

Who? D. S.