

"THE MOST SUCCESSFUL SONG HIT OF 1901."

INTRODUCED AND SUNG BY LEW DOCKSTADER

LEW DOCKSTADER.

WORDS
BY GENE JEFFERSON
MUSIC
BY LEO FRIEDMAN

5

PUBLISHED BY SOL-BLOOM
CO. - RANDOLPH & DEARBORN - STS.
CHICAGO.

W. Ketter

COON! COON! COON!

Words by 'GENE JEFFERSON.
Writer of "I'm Certainly Living a Rag-time Life,"
"My Genuine Georgia Gal," etc.

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN.
Composer of "Handy Andy" March,
"If I Have You," etc.

1. Al -
2. I

March tempo.

Slow, with expression.
(TILL READY.)

ff

p

Intro.

mf

though it's not my col - or, I'm feel - ing might - y blue; I've had my face en - am - eled, I had my hair made straight, I got a lot of troub - le, I'll tell it all to you; I'm dressed up like a white man, And cer - t'nly did look great; Then cer - t'nly clean dis - gust - ed With life, and that's a fact, Be - start - ed out to see her, Just short - ly aft - er dark, But cause my hair is wool - ly And be - cause my col - or's black. My on the way to meet my babe I had to cross a park; Just

mf

mf
gal, she took a no - tion A - gainst the col - ored race, She as I was a - think - ing I had things fixed up right, I

mf

REFRAIN. 1st time f, 2d time ff.

Coon! Coon! Coon! I wish my col - or would fade;..... Coon! Coon!

Coon! I'd like a dif - fer - ent shade.... Coon! Coon! Coon!....

Morn - ing, night and noon, I wish I was a white man 'Stead of a Coon! Coon! Coon!

Coon!....

2

SYM.

f

D. S. al f.

