

SIMPLE LITTLE SISTER MARY GREEN.

SONG AND CHORUS

WRITTEN & COMPOSED BY
CLIFTON CRAWFORD.

AS SUNG AT
HAMMERSTEIN'S
VICTORIA ROOF GARDEN
STAGED BY NED WAYBURN

5

Published by
HOWLEY, HAVILAND & DRESSER
1260 1266 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
MAKING TEMPLE CHICAGO. ONE DIME & 3 CENTS.

HITCHCOCK'S

Simple Little Sister Mary Green.

Words and Music by CLIFTON CRAWFORD.

Moderato

There was once a sim-ple floweret, Ma - ry was her name;
 The par-son gave a pic-nic and she went the oth - er day;
 Com - ing from the pic-nic they were crowded if you please;

Sim - ple lit - tle Ma - ry was her name _____ A Ma - ry had a cinch the oth - er day _____ And Ver - ry, ver - ry crowd - ed if you please _____

In - no - cence pro - found was sis - ter Ma - ry's lit - tle game!
 lit - tle game of for - feits they all be - gan to play,
 sev - ral of the la - dies sat up - on their hus - bands knees,

In - no - cence was Ma - ry's lit - tle game. Now Ma - ry was a "dai - sy" at the play. The Han - dy things your hus - bands com - fy knees.

she had beaux who wished to wed but none of them had "dough"
 rule was when you lost a game a kiss had to be bought, From a Ma - ry had no hus - band but the par - son of - fered his The Ma - ry's boys were nice but had no "dough." When gen - tle - man a kiss had to be bought, hum - 'rous fun - ny par - son of - fered his asked to mar - ry, she'd say nix, and tell them where to go, A Ma - ry lost it ev - 'ry time and had to kiss the lot, Ma - ry took him at his word, the con - se - quen - ces is,

CHORUS.

nice warm place where Ma - ry said to go. — Lit - tle sis - ter Ma - ry kissed the lot. — Ma - ry Green Ma - ry is the Rev'rend Mrs. Phiz. — nicest lit - tle gir - lie ev - er seen, Light and air - y graceful as a fair - y

Ma - ry Green sweet six - teen Brought up in a tru - ly ru - rul scene Ex - tra - or - din - a - ry fair - y Ma - ry Green.