THE VOICE HEARD IN THE CHOIR.

Words & Music by FRANCIS L. MURPHY.

Moderato.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a melody in treble clef, marked mf. The left hand provides accompaniment in bass clef. The music is in common time (C) and features a key signature of one sharp (F#). The introduction concludes with a rall. marking.

CHORUS.

The mem-'ry of that Eas - ter morn' will al - ways with me stay, I'll

The first system of the chorus features a vocal line in treble clef with a common time signature. The lyrics are "The mem-'ry of that Eas - ter morn' will al - ways with me stay, I'll". The piano accompaniment consists of a right hand in treble clef and a left hand in bass clef, both in common time. The right hand plays chords and moving lines, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with some arpeggiated figures. A piano dynamic marking 'p' is present in the first measure of the piano part.

ne'er for get the sing - er or the an - them sung that day, It

The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics "ne'er for get the sing - er or the an - them sung that day, It". The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support, maintaining the common time signature.

The fourth system concludes the chorus with the lyrics "years may pass, I'll ne'er for - get, The voice heard in the Choir." The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord. A rall. (rallentando) marking is placed above the final vocal note and below the final piano chord.
