No kind of work to him was interesting, Though Eph' was always on the Their play-ing cer-tain-ly kept Eph-rum bus-y, He chased those bands a-round till job sug-gest-ing, But folks con-fess, His laz-i-ness he felt dis-zy, They made him mad, But he was glad, was nev-er known to stand a cer-tain test, It seems that mel-o-dy

Cause mus-i-c sim-ply couldn't make him sad, Those bands have left the town,

And Eph' can-not a-gree, Just start a band and he gets bus-y.
But Eph' don't wear a frown, He fol-lows them a-round, he's hap-py.
CHORUS.

Every time a band starts playing, he just looks all around, all around, all around,

Then his body starts away and he bows to the ground, to the ground, to the ground,

He stands there a while listening, Soon his lips they start a whistle-ing,

Then he's gone, gone, gone, like a flash, with a dash, and a crash, Oh!

Makes no difference where that band is anywhere, he'll be there, he'll be there, he'll be there.

If there's people all around him everywhere, he don't care, he don't care, he don't care.

Other times he's doggone lazy, But it seems that music sets him crazy, And the folks all call him
