Moderato.

Have you ev - er stopped to think when you've been trav' - ling here and there What a Say your pal has on - ly been a - way from home a - bout a year, He will great big lone - some world this seems to be; — And how hard it is to find a pal who's start right in to tell you all the news; — And no mat - ter what he men - tions it is real - ly on the square, It's a prob - lem that has of - ten puz - zled me. — Though you sure to bring you cheer, It's the great - est cure I know of for the blues. — Then you'll make friends ver - y ea - sy and they all seem good and true, There are ask a - bout the old folks and the school house on the hill, Where as few that have that good old fash - ioned way; You will kids you spent the hap - py days gone by; Times have find there's some - thing diff - rent in the things they say or do, And when changed, those scenes have van - ished but their mem - ry lin - gers still, Think it you have met them all you're bound to say o - ver and you'll know just why I sigh

CHORUS.

Gee, but it's great to meet a friend — from your home town —

What diff - 'rence does it make if he — is up or down —

When he shakes you by the hand

The first system of music features a vocal line in a treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are "When he shakes you by the hand". The piano accompaniment consists of a right-hand part with chords and eighth notes, and a left-hand part with a simple bass line.

There's a feel - ing you can't un - der - stand, Oh

The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics "There's a feel - ing you can't un - der - stand, Oh". The piano accompaniment features a more active right-hand part with chords and eighth notes, while the left hand remains simple.

Gee, but it's great to meet a friend - from your

The third system has the lyrics "Gee, but it's great to meet a friend - from your". The piano accompaniment includes a right-hand part with chords and eighth notes, and a left-hand part with a simple bass line.

home town town

The fourth system concludes with the lyrics "home town town". The vocal line includes first and second endings. The piano accompaniment features a right-hand part with chords and eighth notes, and a left-hand part with a simple bass line.
