

"NIGGER BLUES"

BY LE ROY
LUSSES
WHITE

PUBLISHED BY
BUSH & GERTS 1570
DALLAS TEXAS

Nigger Blues

Words & Music by
LEROY (LASSES) WHITE

INTRO.
Allegro moderato

f

Oh! the Oh!—

TILL READY

p

VOICE

blues aint noth - ing, Oh! the blues aint noth - ing, But a yon - der comes,— Oh!— yon - der comes— The—good man feel - ing bad, Oh! the blues aint noth - ing But a train com - ing down the track, Oh! yon - der comes The good man feel - ing bad, Oh! train comin' down the track, To that's a feel - ing That I've of - ten take me a - way, But it aint go - ing to bring me.

had. You can call the blues, You can back. Oh! when I die, Oh!

call the blues, — An - y old — thing — you — when I die, — Hon - ey, Hon - ey, don't you wear no please, — You can call the blues — An - y old — thing you black, — Oh, — when I die, — Hon - ey, don't you wear no please, — But the blues aint noth-ing But the black, — 'Cause if you do, — My — dog — gone — heart de - sease. — When a ghost — will come sneak - ing back. — I'm goin' man gets blue, — When a man gets blue, — He to lay my head, I'm goin' to lay my head Down takes a — train and rides, — When a man gets blue, — He — on — some rail-road line, — I'm goin' to lay my head Down takes a train and rides, — When a on some rail - road line, — Let the woman gets blue, She hangs her lit - tle head and cries. — San - ta Fe — Try to pac - i - fy my mind. —