Le - na. — When she rose each day, she'd com - mence to play, And the ta - tion. — But a board - er who on that day was new By mis - board - ers thought of no term, — That was strong e - nough It was take said "Oh Miss Le - na, — Wont you play, please do, it is real - ly tough, When Miss Le - na played the Glow - Worm. — up to you, And your love - ly Con - cer - ti - na. —

When she start - ed in to play the board - ers all would yell, "Hey!"
When she start - ed in to play the board - ers all did yell, "Hey!"

CHORUS.

Nix on the Glow-Worm Le-na, Le-na, Play some-thing else on your Con-cer-ti-na, If the man that wrote it heard her— It's a cinch there would be mur-der;— Cut out the Glow Worm, can it! can it!

We'll go dip-py soon;— Beat it Le-na with your con-cer-ti-na, And that Glow-Worm tune. — tune.
