

THE HEATHER BELL

A SCOTCH SONG

Written and COMPOSED BY

H. R. Spittal.

Arranged for the GUITAR, BY

F. Meland.

Philadelphia A. FIOT 196 Chesnut S.
New York W. DUBOIS 315 Broadway

Allegretto.

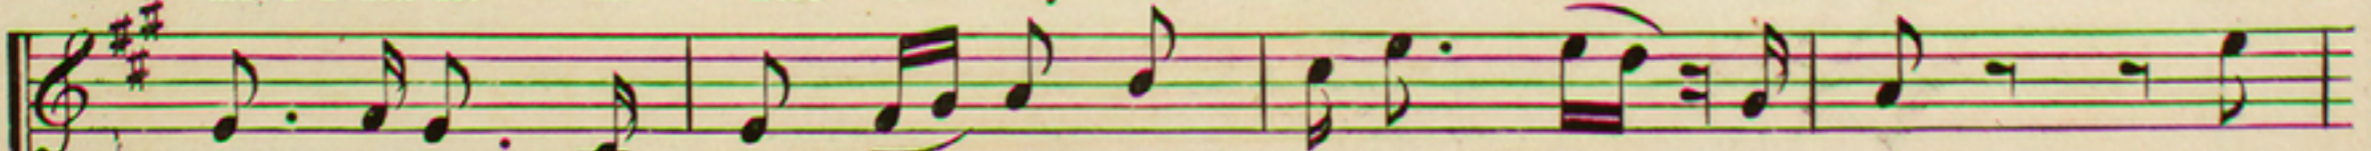

A - - way; a - way ye ro - ses gay, The hea - ther bell for me; Fair

Oh! deck thy hair wi' the hea - ther bell, The hea - ther bell a - lone, Leave mai - - den let me hear thee say "The heather bell for me." Then ro - ses to the low - land maid, The lowland maid a - lone, I've twine a wreath o' the hea - ther bell, The hea - - ther bell a - - lone.

Nor

seen thee wi' the gay, gay rose, And wi' the hea - ther - bell, I rose nor li - ly twine ye there; The hea - - ther bell a - - lone.

For the love you much wi' both fair maid, But wear the hea - ther bell. For the hea - - ther bell &c.

hea - ther bell, the hea - ther bell Which breathes the mountain air, Is far more fit than ro - ses gay To deck thy flowing hair.

Heather bell. Guitar.