FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

Con spirito.

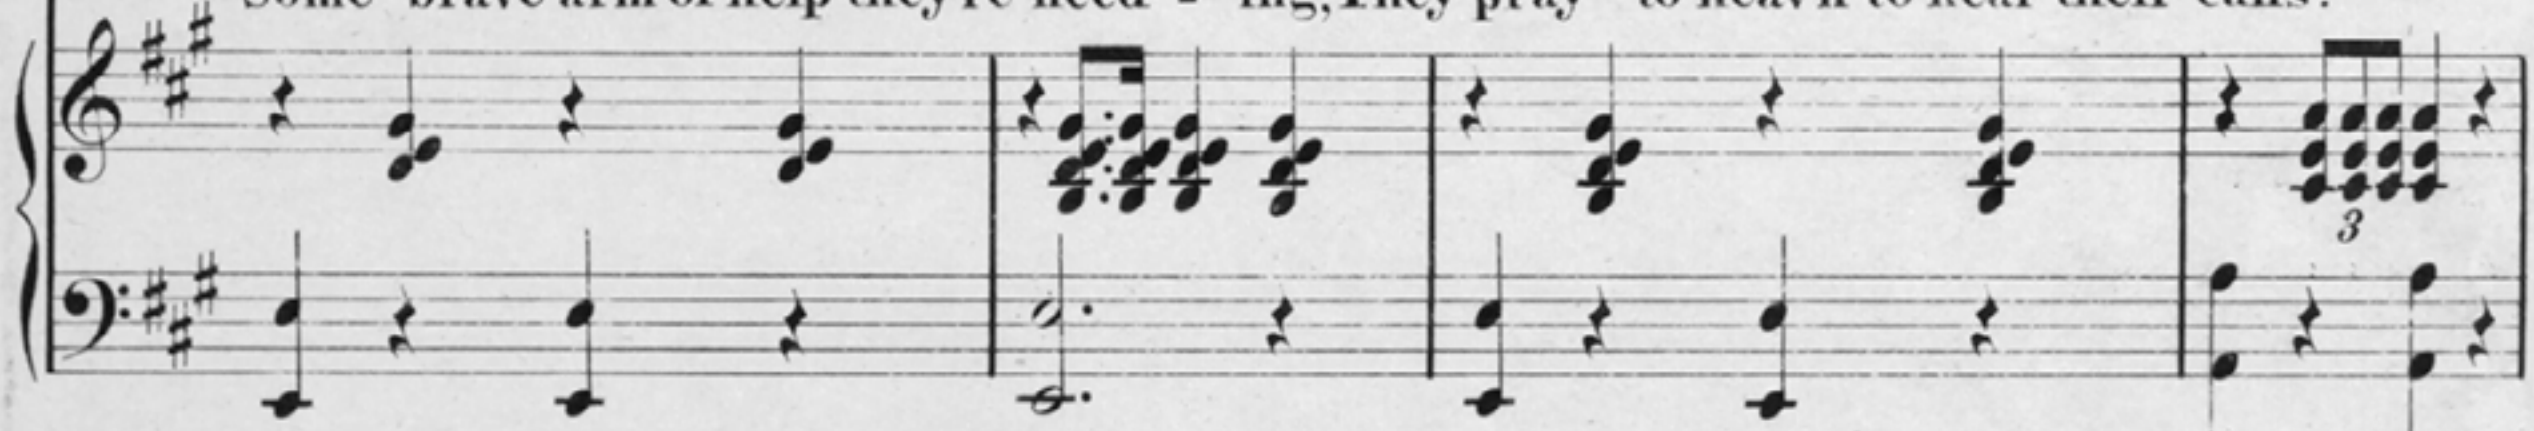

T. B. KELLEY.

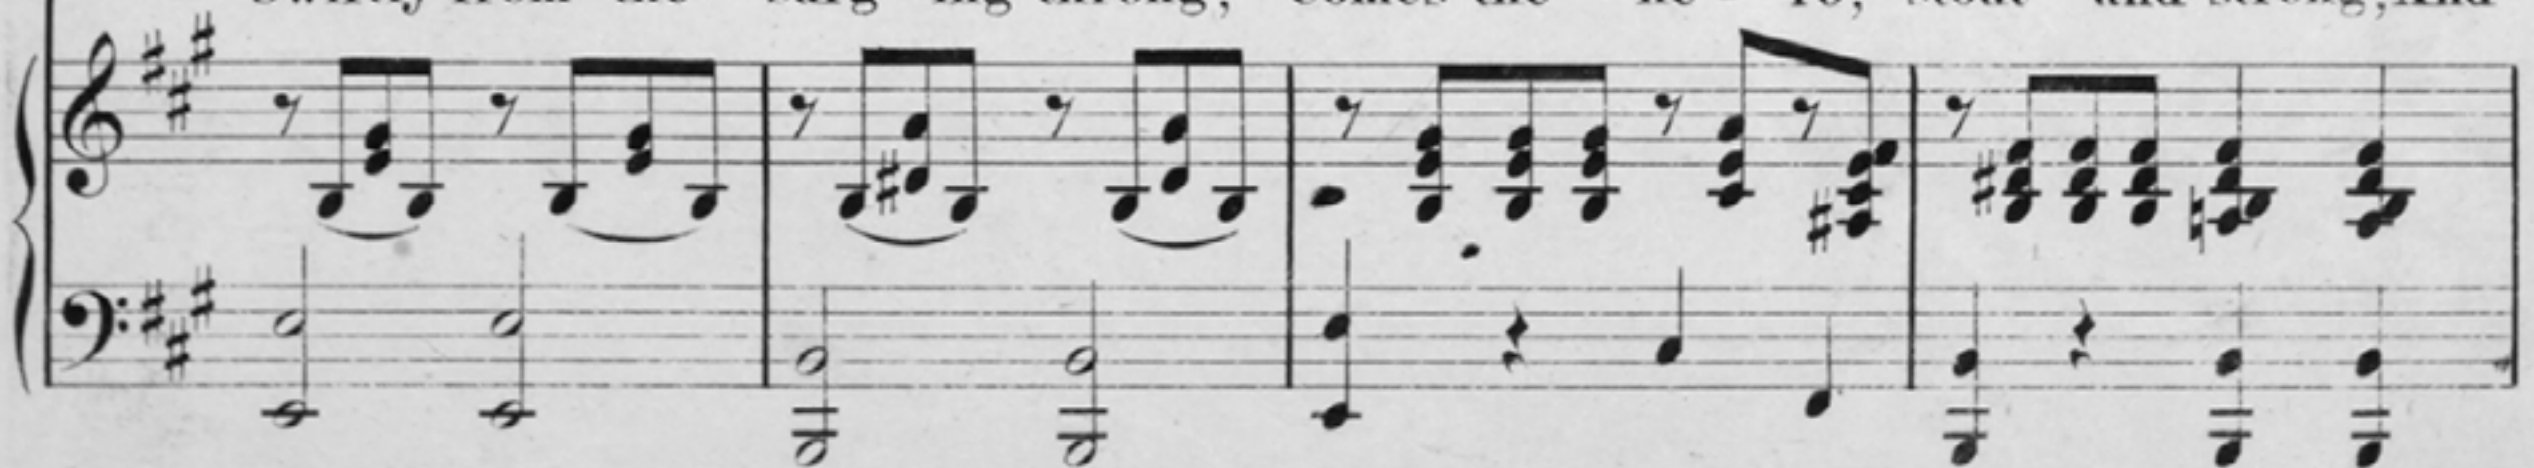

Hark! the fire - alarm is sound - ing; See, the air is lit with flame;
See the em - bers wild - ly fly - ing, Blown and scat - ter'd ev - 'ry - where;
Hear the sound of voic - es plead - ing, Com - ing from within the walls;

All excitement, hearts are bound - ing, The fier - y de - mon naught can tame.
Glares the flame with rage un - dy - ing, A scene of fu - ry and des - pair.
Some brave arm of help they're need - ing, They pray to heav'n to hear their calls.

Peo - ple haste to view the sight, Lured from home at dead of night, With No - ble fire - men do their part, Each with brave and fear - ful heart, Swiftly from the surg - ing throng, Comes the he - ro, stout and strong, And min - gled dread and wild - de-light, When they hear the cry of fire. With

 And from dan - ger ne'er de - part, They are near the rag - ing fire.
 quick the cry is borne a long, He has saved them from the fire. And min - gled dread and wild de-light, When they hear the cry of fire.

 And from dan - ger ne'er de - part, They 'are' near the rag - ing fire.
 quick the cry is borne a - long, He has saved them from the fire.

Fire! Fire! Fire! Hear the wild des-pair - ing cry; The Fire! Fire! Fire! Hear the wild des-pair - ing cry; The Fire! Fire! Fire! Hear the wild des-pair - ing cry; The flames are rag - ing more and more, They light the loft - y sky

flames are rag - ing more and more, They light the loft - y sky

flames are rag - ing more and more, They light the loft - y sky

Fire! Fire! Fire! Ma - ny hearts with an - guish sigh, And

Fire! Fire! Fire! Ma - ny hearts with an - guish sigh, And

Fire! Fire! Fire! Ma - ny hearts with an - guish sigh, And some are left of home be - reft, To suf - fer and to die.

some are left of home be - reft, To suf - fer and to die.

some are left of home be - reft, To suf - fer and to die.
