NEW YORK Published at ATWILLS MUSIC SALOON No 201 Broadway.

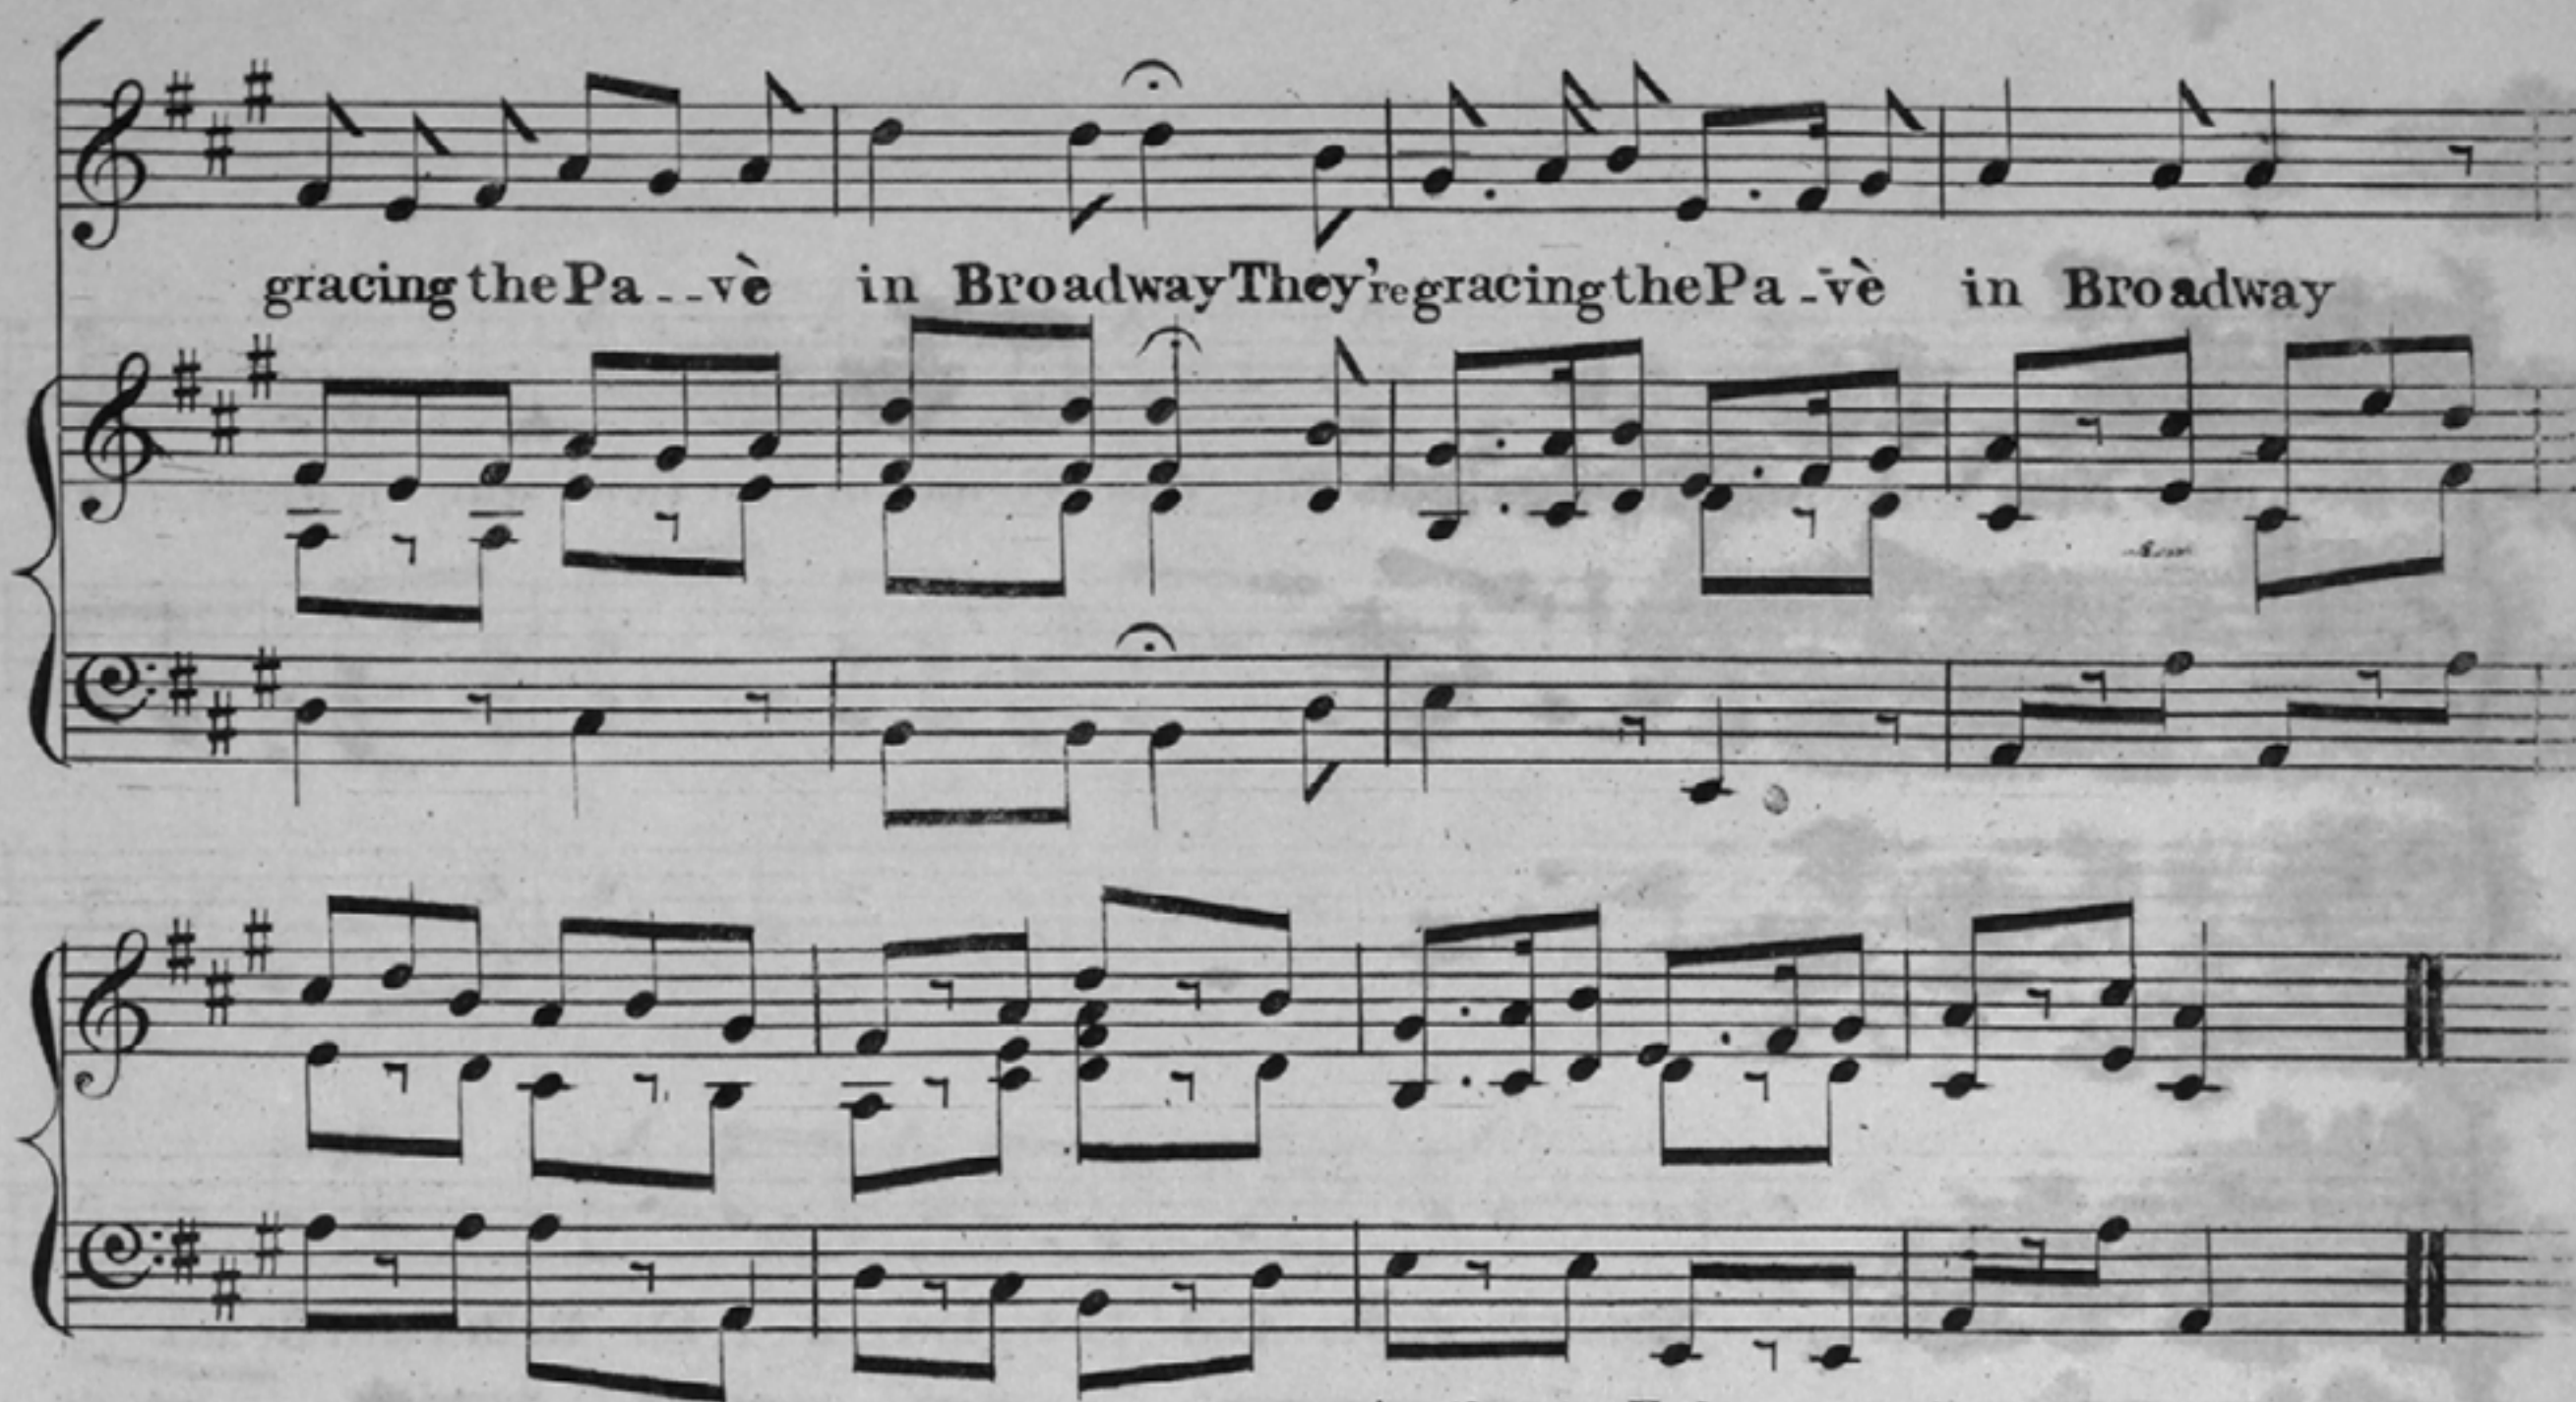

The musical score is written for piano and features two systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef staff and a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The time signature is 6/8. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto' and the dynamic is 'mf'. The piano part consists of a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the melody and bass line, with dynamics 'p' and 'f' indicated. The piece concludes with a double bar line and the initials 'V.S.' in the bottom right corner.

In New York when the weathers fair One Grand attractive spot is there A place to which ev'ry Stranger goes, And fashionable Belles and Beaux

Each after-noon go watch the course Of stylish Gig, Coach, Cab, or Horse And Ladies whom the fashions sway They're

Young Ladies may the heavens' bless 'em
And send them Husbands to caress 'em
Where e'er you are tis all their talk
We're going to Broadway now to walk
Such smiling lips and looks so arch,
They to the Church, thro' Broadway march
Young Ladies may I ask you, Pray
If Cupid lives any where in Broadway.

When Ladies wanting Bonnets or Laces
To adorn their lovely faces
To "Whittinghams" "Stewarts" or "Fountains" go
To purchase all at their Depot
Crossing o'er beyond Pauls Church
At "Stebbins" Store for trinkets search
But what are "Jewels" or "Diamonds" say
Compared to the "Eyes" that grace Broadway

What can equal the Music Stores in Broadway
Their Magnificent Instruments in bright array
If you wish with New Music your folio to fill Theres a Store, your demand will be honor'd AT-WILL
New Waltzes Quadrilles the last beautiful sett
"The Sights of Broadway" and "Oh do not forget"
"Zurichs Waters" and "Oh what a joyous day"
Are published at ATWILLS SALOON in Broadway

The Broadway Hotels are the best in the States
For comfort attention and moderate rates
Theres the "City" "American" "Congress Hall"
The "Franklin" "Atlantic" and "Washington Hall"
Then theres "John Jacob Astors" Magnificent pile
Erecting its head in very grand style
As you pass evry day it seems proudly to say
Of Hotels Ill be "President" in Broadway

As this is Fashions grand parade
Tis eagerly sought by men of trade
They say for evry Speculation
Its a capital first rate situation
In every part of the City is found
When e'er the Welcome Spring comes round
This store to let "On the first of May"
Going to move into Broadway

In Broadway as you pass along
Amid the Fashionable throng
The finest show of Carriage people
Likewise the sharpest pointed steeple
Magicians there are, Aye nearly twenty
With slight of hand tricks, and light finger'd Gentry
Who pocket the Dollars and then they say
What a wonderful place is this Broadway

8
But of all the places in Broadway
Theres one the gayest of the gay
A place where hundreds nightly meet
It stands at the corner of Prince Street
All Competition at once defying
The Concerts are fine theres no denying Shall we go there to night Oh dont say nay
Theres a Capital song all about Broadway

Theres the feminine Watsons whose pipes sweet and clear
Youll remember with pleasure till this time next year
Theres Howard whose melodies drive away care
The Fireworks beautiful brilliant and rare
Then theres LATHAM that silly comical calf
At whose nonsense so good natur'd all of you laugh
So with all these together I think you will say
That NIBLOS excells all the sights of Broadway
