COMIC SONG

Words and Music by WILL. L. THOMPSON.

1. My Ma she took it in her head, that I should learn to play,
   On the organ and piano.

2. My teacher showed me A and B, and F sharp, G and D,
   Says I, "Dear teacher,
   and in the most new-fangled way,
   So to the teacher we did go, With
   "Is that all? "Don't we play on X and Z?"
   He showed me clefs, and staffs and bars, I tho'rt'would next be rails,  And the lit-tle things He called the notes. Were like drum-sticks with tails.

CHORUS. Very little slower.

This ex-er-cise I then went thro', As all be-gin-ners have to do, I sang so high that my voice broke down, And I drove the neigh-bors out of town.

"THE WONDERFUL MUSICIAN." Comic Song by Armstrong, Price 30 cents.
Sung nightly in Eleventh St. Opera House Philadelphia, by Carncross' Minstrels.
3. I warbled high, says he, "you're sharp," just come a little down." My Ma chim'd in and says, "you're right," "She's the sharpest girl in town." "Now teacher, what's this little scroll?" "Why that, my dear's, a rest," I jump'd up from the music stool. (Spoken) and I've been resting ever since.

Chorus omitted after this verse.
