BOSTON.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a whole rest. The lower staff is in bass clef and begins with a forte (ff) dynamic marking. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs, with some dotted rhythms.

The second system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking and contains a melodic line of eighth notes. The lower staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment of chords, primarily dyads, in the bass clef.

The third system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth notes. The lower staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment. A forte (ff) dynamic marking appears in the lower staff towards the end of the system.

The fourth system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth notes. The lower staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment with chords in the bass clef.
