

THE RUSH OF WATERS.

NEW YEARS GIFT FOR 1855.

2d Floor.

1st Floor.

NEW YORK:
Compliments of HORACE WATERS, PUBLISHER, 333 BROADWAY.

MR. WATERS would state to the Musical Public, that his business having kept pace in its progress with the passage of time, he will be found prepared at the commencement of the New Year, to supply all wants growing out of a cultivation of the Musical Art, of whatever nature, in a manner and upon terms unprecedented in the history of the Music Business in the United States. His great establishment, (a view of which is given above,) is at all times stored with the most celebrated Pianos, Melodions, and Musical Instruments of all kinds, in larger assortment, and at less price, than can be found elsewhere.

THE RUSH OF WATERS.

SONG & CHORUS.

FOR THE

PIANO FORTE.

The words from The Wall St: Journal.

INTRODUCTION.

ALLEGRETTO.

f Ped *

SONG.

As joy.....ously the WA.....TERS gush,

POLKA.

p

Where from dark ra....vine's they rush, As peace...ful....ly the cres:

WA...TERS flow, Where the weep...ing wil...lows grow;—

f Ped *

As the WA...TERS moist the earth, Put...ting far the stacc:

fear of dearth.— As cool WA...TERS quench the thirst,

p

When from bub...bling springs they burst.—

CHORUS.

Vivace.

Tenor. So does WATER'S in Broadway! Cheer th'af-flic-ted, please the gay;

Alto. So does WATER'S in Broadway! Cheer th'af-flic-ted, please the gay;

Soprano. So does WATER'S in Broadway! Cheer th'af-flic-ted, please the gay;

Basso. So does WATER'S in Broadway! Cheer th'af-flic-ted, please the gay;

Piano. f

cres: While he to each laughing lay, Breathes his mu...sic all the day.

cres: While he to each laughing lay, Breathes his mu...sic all the day.

cres: While he to each laughing lay, Breathes his mu...sic all the day.

cres: While he to each laughing lay, Breathes his mu...sic all the day.

cres: f Ped D.C.

2nd Verse.

Breathes he mu...sic to the sad_ Makes the hea_vy - hearted glad_

As each joy in...spi...ring strain, Wakens to new life a...gain, -

WA...TERS' mu...sic soft...ly stealing, - Half be...tray...ing, half con...ceal...ing,

Whis-pers love in tones so moving, Who can keep one's heart from loving - Cho^s 3rd Verse.

WA...TERS' mu...sic speaking grandly, Now in thun-der, Now so bland...ly

Who can keep the soul from thrilling, When such sounds the air is fil...ing!

WA...TERS' mu...sic pen...sive flow...ing - Speaks of the Des...troy...er's do...ing -

Then, who then his heart can keep, And not "weep with those who weep?" Cho^s

4th Verse.

WA...TERS' mu...sic joy...ous ringing Speaks of flow'rets joy...ous springing,

Forth from Earth to glad the soul; Up my heart from earth's control, -

Sing and dance and shout with glee, Be ye like all na...ture free;

Mu...sic make from morn till e...ven, For it is the work of Heaven. Cho^s