GRAZIOSO.

The piano introduction for the first system is written in treble and bass clefs with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic is indicated later in the system.

The vocal line for the first system is written in a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps. It contains the lyrics: "What fair-ry - like music steals o-ver the".

The piano accompaniment for the second system continues with chords and melodic fragments in both hands, maintaining the p dynamic.

The vocal line for the second system contains the lyrics: "sea, En-trancing the senses with charm'd me-lo-dy? What".

The piano accompaniment for the third system concludes the piece with a final chord in both hands.

The winds are all hush'd, and the waters at rest;
 They sleep like the passions in Infancy's breast!
 The winds are all hush'd, &c.

'Till storms shall unchain them, from out their dark cave,
 And break the repose of the Soul and the wave!

'Till storms &c.
