

HARK TIS THE CASTANET MERRILY SOUNDING

THE NEW
CACHOUCHA SONG
Arranged by
CHARLES BLONDELL.

Philadelphia, George Willig 171 Chesnut S! 1819-53, ca. 1840?

THE NEW CACHOUCHA SONG

Moderato.

Piano.

Hark how the breeze is with

Hark! 'tis the cas-ta-net melody la - den! See how at tentive yon love-lorn youth! List 'tis a song from the merrily sound-ing! See the Ca-choucharines smiling ar-ray! Joy thro' their hearts with lips of a mai - den Breathing sweet tales of "Wo-man's truth" sunshine is bound - ing Who in this wide world so happy as they!

Ah! the Ca_choucha Li_ra la_la,

Then join the Cachoucha Li_ra la_la, And Mu_sic has more charms than e_ver were guess'd, And the hearts that are lightest and the dance the red sun to his home in the west, For the hearts that are ligh_est and the eyes that are brightest, Know why they love it by moonlight the best by moonlight the best by eyes that are brightest, Love the pale moonlight to dance by the best, to dance by the best To moonlight the best Know why the love it by moonlight the best - - - dance by the best Love the pale moonlight to dance by the best - - -

Lal li ral lal, lal lal lal, la la la la, Lal li ral lal, lal lal lal, la la la la,

Lal li ral lal, lal lal lal, la la la la, Lal li ral lal, lal lal lal, la la la la.