

Funny Charlie Chaplin

Words and Music by

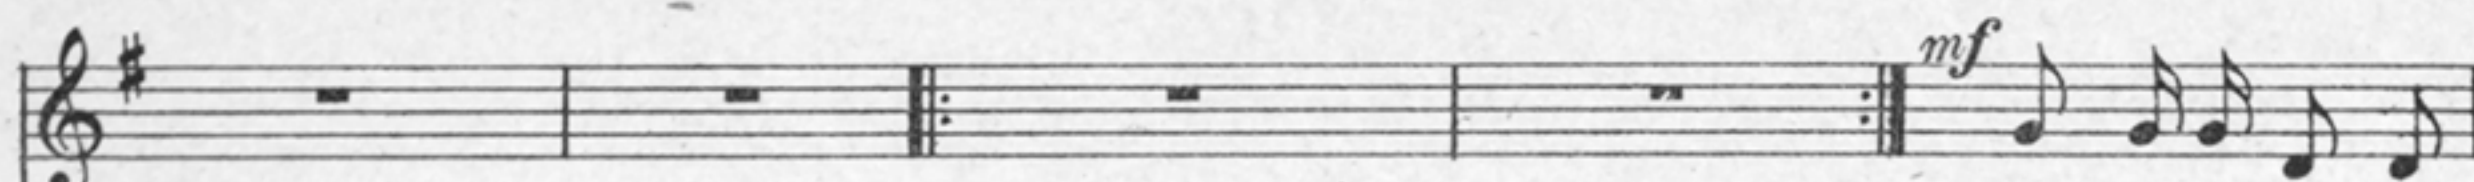

James G. Ellis

ORPHEUM THEATRE

Published by
ACME MUSIC PUBLISHERS
CHICAGO

FUNNY CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Words & Music by JAMES G. ELLIS.

Who is the I - dol
He has a style that's of the day? Fun-ny Char-lie Chap-lin; Who is it drives the blues a-way?

all his own, Fun-ny Char-lie Chap-lin. He has a smile I'd like to own,

Fun-ny Char-lie Chap-lin, If you've nev-er seen this clown,you must have lived in Fun-ny Char-lie Chap-lin, With his lit - tle black mustach, and hat and cane he some rube town, For he has won a great re-nown, so get your hat and gown.

cuts a dash, And on the girls he makes a mash, al - tho' he's oft - en rash.

CHORUS.

And So come with me and I'll show you just the place to go,

Just fol-low me for we're go - ing to a mov - ie — show, I'm goin' to.

give you a most pe - cu - liar laughing treat; Show you a man with a for-tune in his feet, And when he walks with those fun-ny itch-y twich-y strides, You'll laugh so hard that you'll have to hold on to your sides, When he trips on his toes, — Falls on his nose, —

Then you'll know that's Funny Char-lie Chap - - lin. So come with lin.