MC'CLELLAN'S FAREWELL

To the Army of the Potomac.

Ah : Gay and happy.

We're the boys who are firm and ready,
 Firm and ready we will be—
 To compel our southern foemen
 With us and Union to agree.
 CHORUS.—But let opponents say as they will,
 We'll be for McClellan still,
 For McClellan, for McClellan,
 We'll be for our General still.

Down on the banks of the old Potomac,
 There we learned our duty well—
 Those who live shall tell the story,
 How nobly our brave comrades fell.
 CHORUS.—But let opponents say as they will, &c.

His parting words we all remember,
 "To do our duty as before."
 We'll follow the march of our new commander,
 As we did with him we now deplore.
 CHORUS.—But let opponents say as they will, &c.

But that farewell caused us much sorrow,
 Nor could we our grief restrain—
 For men whose hearts were stout for battle,
 With ears cried, "bring him back again."
 CHORUS.—But let opponents say as they will, &c.

When round our camp-fires nightly,
 When the wintry winds do rage—
 We'll speak of one whose name so brightly
 Will yield a charm to hist'ry's page.
 CHORUS.—Then let opponents say as they will,
 We'll be for McClellan still,
 Three times three cheers for McClellan,
 We'll be for our General still.
