

NO NEWS FOR ME.

Air: "Good news from Home."

By JOHN ROSS DIX.

No News for me—No news for me!
I wonder where can Johnny be!
He told me he would surely write—
I fear he must have fall'n in fight!
For oh! his heart is true and kind.
He loves the girl he left behind!
But lonely still my heart must be—
Because there is no news for me.—

CHORUS: No news for me—No news for me!
I wond'r where can Johnny be!
He told me he would surely write—
I fear that he has fall'n in fight.

My little cot looks drear and lone
Since Johnny to the wars has gone:—
The brook which sang so sweet a tune,
Now murmurs sadly to the moon;
And all day long I idly sit,
Or by my silent heart a ! knit;
And tear-drops down my cheeks fall free,
Because there is no news for me!

CHORUS: No news for me, &c.

Yet Johnny—I'll not have you back—
For oh! you follow Honor's track—
I know you love me well, but then
Our Country needs all loyal men!
But oh! the anxious hearts at home
For lov'd ones, who far distant roam!
And weary still my heart must be,
Because there is no news for me.

CHORUS: No news for me, &c.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1864, by CHARLES MAGNUS, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

500 Illustrated Ballads, lithographed and printed by
CHARLES MAGNUS, No. 12 Frankfort Street, New York.
Branch Office: No. 520 7th St., Washington, D. C.